Conference Schedule and Agenda

October 18 – 20, 2017

Wednesday, October 18, 2017

7:30 – 5:00 p.m. CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

INTENSIVE SESSION CHOICES

New This Year! We have four education choices for Wednesday.
You can pick one from each time slot for 8 hours of continuing education, or you can pick morning only or afternoon only for 4 hours of continuing education.
Lunch is included for those attending both morning and afternoon sessions.

Choose (1) 4-Hour Session 8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

1. Activities in the 4th Dimension: A Practical Approach to Quality Improvement and Program Development – Carla Bacon Smith, BS in Music, Owner, Lifetime Expressions, Bartlett, Illinois

Explore ways to revitalize your programs and re-energize your staff to meet the needs of a diverse and changing population. The first part of this session will focus on practical tips and tools to evaluate and build your program while expanding your expertise to impact your contribution to interdisciplinary quality of life initiatives. Next, we will spend time focusing on “applied creativity,” introducing tools and techniques that can be used in monthly calendar planning to help you identify opportunities for growth, and expand the scope and depth of your program as you explore new possibilities. The hands-on planning techniques presented will guide you to focus on your goals and harness your creative energy to take your programming into the next dimension. Participants are asked to bring a copy of their calendar to utilize in the exercises.

2. The Art of Oz and the Oddball – Pam Goff and Shelly Dildine, Activity Professionals, Hope Creek Care Center, East Moline, Illinois

Start off our your Oz themed conference by learning to paint some beautiful pictures and doing easy craft projects that can be used to decorate your facility or sell to make money for your department. We will spend time learning simple projects complete with instructions for you to take home to your community. These projects will be made from inexpensive materials to fit anyone’s budget.

Choose (1) 4-Hour Session 1:00 P.M. – 5:00 P.M.

3. Dementia R.A.W. Real. Authentic. Wholehearted – Tami Neumann, COO, Catherine Braxton, CEO, Silver Dawn Training Institute

The Dementia R.A.W. Workshop will help participants become versed in a new language based in the four pillars of empathy and the four rules of improv. By being introspective in their own experiences, participants will gain an appreciation and desire to be intentional and insightful in their communication efforts. Participants will engage in improv exercises, stretching them out of their comfort zones, enhancing skill confidence. By blending the concepts of empathy with improv, the participants will construct new, thoughtful and affirming communication skills and mannerisms that will encourage the creation of peak moments of success for all.

4. Ruby Red and Brick Road Yellow – Pam Goff and Shelly Dildine, Activity Professionals, Hope Creek Care Center, East Moline

Love crafts? Can’t get enough? Join Pam and Shelly as they bring more projects to do with your residents. There will be something for everyone including another one of Pam’s famous holiday wreaths that can be completed using only 3 items. These items are wonderful decorations and make good items to sell to as a fundraiser to help benefit your department.

BREAKOUT SESSION CHOICES

IAPA reserves the right to limit the number of session participants in order to enhance the educational experience. Because of this we recommend registering EARLY. We cannot guarantee your first choice, so indicate 1st and 2nd choices on registration form.

Choose (1) 90-Minute Session 8:30 A.M. – 10:00 A.M.

- A. Engaging Seniors in a Virtual Learning Community – Lynne Beachner, PhD, Ellen Ervin, MEd, Founders Senior Learning Network and Generations Learning
Want to visit the Grand Canyon, Denali and the Smithsonian Art Museum on the same day? It's a snap when you do it virtually. Give your community experiences they can't get anywhere else. This interactive non-profit wants you to help shape it. It is dedicated to providing learning experiences to those less likely to travel. Whether people are living in community or independently, they are able to engage and keep their mind active while keeping socially active. Hear from providers and directors as you experience video conferencing first-hand.
- B. Activity Ideas for Severe Mentally Ill Residents in Recovery – Janet Sand, MSW, LCSW, Long Term Care Consultant, Health Service Consultants, Inc., Champaign, Illinois
Regulations say we need to develop programming that allows us to address the emotional and therapeutic needs of those in recovery or who have been diagnosed with a severe mental illness (SMI). As an Activity Director, you may ask "how do I do that?" or "I have no idea where to start." Let us show you how.
- C. Move it with Purpose: Targeted Exercise for Seniors – Carla Bacon Smith, BS in Music, Owner, Lifetime Expressions, Bartlett, Illinois
Exercise and movement activities are a staple in most recreational programs designed for seniors...and for good reason. Movement-based activities are increasingly being recognized as a powerful means of impacting the physical, cognitive and psychological wellness of seniors, helping them improve and maintain function and independence. This session will focus on specific needs of the senior population with exercises targeted to increase function in key areas. Learn to create "designer" fitness programs targeted to the needs of your population in this hands-on session.
- D. The Wizard of Alz – Deb Greiner, UDC
This presentation will explain the disease of Alzheimer's and what a person may experience using the movie The Wizard of Oz as a paradigm. Attendees will better understand what a new resident may be feeling, as well as have a simplified way to assist families with this experience.

10:00 – 10:30 a.m. EXHIBIT AREA OPEN

10:30 – 12:00 p.m. E. KEYNOTE ADDRESS – Courage, Heart and Smarts – Richard Oberbruner, BA, Professional Speaker

It's part of an Activity Professional's personality to have Courage, Heart and Smarts. This session will put all three on display. The interactive fun of improv will lead the way!

12:15 – 1:30 p.m. LUNCHEON (You must indicate on your registration form if you will be attending.)
CONFERENCE OPENING AND CALL OF REGIONS
GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING
INSTALLATION OF NEW OFFICERS AND CERTIFICATION BOARD MEMBERS

Choose (1) 90-Minute Session
1:45 P.M. - 3:15 P.M.

F. Life-Size Games – Janet Sand, MSW, LCSW, Long Term Care Consultant, Health Service Consultants, Inc., Champaign, Illinois

Why don't we get together and create some life-size games. In this session we will remind you how fun it is to play games together, laughing and cheering each other on. The rest of the staff will want to join in.

G. Healthy Body and Happy Mind - Shravan Gunda, MS, Information Systems Analyst, Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services, Volunteer, Art of Living Foundation

This session focuses on energizing and calming both body and mind. Participants learn a variety of powerful breathing and meditation techniques. The breathing not only calms down the stress response system, but it activates the recharging, healing part of the nervous system to relieve stress and strain and enhance our ability to face challenges. Overall, it gives us powerful tools to get a grip on our mind and emotions.

H. Impact: Designing a Fall Prevention Program for Seniors - Carla Bacon Smith, BS in Music, Owner, Lifetime Expressions, Bartlett, Illinois

Falls pose a big problem for seniors and those who care for them. One in four persons over the age of 65 will experience a fall this year, which can have a negative impact on their health and lifestyle. Expand your knowledge of fall risk and prevention, and explore techniques for implementing a multi-faceted fall prevention program that can have a big impact on quality care and quality of life for your seniors.

I. Updates on Resident Rights and Person-Centered Care – Kimberly Jornd, BAS, CTRS, Consultant, Outcome Services of Illinois, Breese

With the release of the CMS Requirements of Participation, there is so much to learn about Phase 1, 2 and 3. In this session, an overview of Phase 1 will be provided and how it addresses updates to resident rights and person-centered care. Suggestions will be provided on how you can use this information to enhance your overall Activity programming and day-to-day interactions with those that you work with.

Choose (1) 90-Minute Session
3:30 P.M. – 5:00 P.M.

J. More Than Just Lotion: Activities on a Budget for Person's with Alzheimer's Disease – Lisa Olson, BA, Activity Coordinator, Kreider Services, Inc., Dixon, Illinois

This will be a general discussion, brainstorming and hands on session about types of sensory based activities for people living in the end stages of Alzheimer's Disease.

K. Healthy Body and Happy Mind - Shraavan Gunda, MS, Information Systems Analyst, Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services, Volunteer, Art of Living Foundation

This session focuses on energizing and calming both body and mind. Participants learn a variety of powerful breathing and meditation techniques. The breathing not only calms down the stress response system, but it activates the recharging, healing part of the nervous system to relieve stress and strain and enhance our ability to face challenges. Overall, it gives us powerful tools to get a grip on our mind and emotions.

L. Toto, We're Not in Kansas Anymore - Denise Spihlman, MSW, LCSW, Director of Consulting Services, Outcome Services of Illinois, Breese

Life sure has changed in 2017 and we are "no longer in Kansas" but have both feet in Illinois. The year 2017 has brought many changes to LTC. It started with Phase 1 of the regulations in November 2016 and since that time, facilities have been responsible not only for complying with these new regulations, but also preparing for Phase 2 of the regulations. In addition, Activities has to now deal with the change in survey process and to begin looking at putting QAPI in place. Working in LTC has become even more challenging and, for many staff in LTC, not the same "fun and games" as there had been in the past. Activities is an area that many people offer suggestions/thoughts as to how activities should be run, but there are only a few of us involved in the day-to-day aspects of activities and truly understand the challenges faced today with providing a well-rounded activity program that reaches all residents. Our focus today will be on what aspects of the new regulations impact you in activities, as well as provide the information to you regarding what is going on out there in the survey world that you need to be aware of to better prepare yourself for when your Public Health Survey occurs. You will receive the most recent survey trends, along with sharing information as to what insight surveyors are giving into activity program and what some of the most recent survey tags are.

M. Sexual Intimacy with Persons with Dementia – Susan Quattrochi-Tubin, PhD, CTRS, CPRP, CDP, ACC, CAC, AC-BC, LNHA, President Quality Care Consulting Services, Inc., Chicago

Sexual expression in a nursing home has been a taboo topic and yet health care professionals know that "it" happens. How we deal with sexual expression and its implications for resident rights and resident protection from abuse and exploitation is important. This session will address and offer answers and solutions to these issues.

5:30 – 6:00 p.m. Change into your Wizard of Oz attire for a special mystery dinner!

6:00 – 9:00 p.m. MYSTERY DINNER AND AWARDS PRESENTATION

Become part of the fun, dress the part, play it smart, everyone at the dinner party is a suspect. Could you be sitting right next to a criminal or are you the one? We have to solve this crime and we need your help. Oz is a very scary place right now with a murderer loose at our awards dinner.

Friday, October 20, 2017

8:00 a.m. CONFERENCE REGISTRATION OPEN

Choose (1) 90-Minute Session
8:30 A.M. – 10:00 A.M.

N. Honor Your Veterans and Fallen Heroes - Joe Agnello, MS, MA, Hospice Chaplain, Transitions Hospice, Huntley, Illinois

Veteran's Day honors our veterans who returned home and Memorial Day honors our fallen heroes and sheros. All long-term care communities also have residents who reside there or expired there. But there is more to the story of those who sacrificed a portion of their life, or their life itself, in defense of our freedom. Their wives also made a sacrifice and deserve recognition. This session will inform you about "salutes" and "memorials" that can be implemented to honor our heroes, veterans and their wives.

O. Empowerment Through Rhythm and Drumming – Philip Seward, Hand and Heart Drumming

In the Drum Circle Facilitators Workshop we will explore the origins of rhythms and how they translate into the diverse programs held by you, the activity professional. Community drumming gives participants the opportunity to be part of something greater than themselves. This activity also opens up a way to become involved and less isolated. It empowers a varied demographic of participants and each of you will find that it will be customized to your particular field. We will be participating in a fun environment in a hands-on manner. This course will be fun and refreshing as well as educational.

- P. Games, Games and More Games - Brenda Hunt, Activity Director, CMH Magnolia Center; Jeff Lathrop, Activity Director, Flora Gardens Care Center

Come join us for games and entertainment. These games will cover a wide range of functional abilities while providing laughter and memories for your residents.

- Q. Is “resident choice” Person-Centered Care? - Cathy Weightman-Moore, BA, Program Director/Regional Ombudsman, Long Term Care Ombudsman Program, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Rockford, Illinois

Activity calendars often list “resident choice” as an activity. What does that mean? This session will assist activity professionals to understand their role in developing and carrying out person-centered activities. The revised CMS regulations for person-centered care planning will be reviewed and ways to truly plan the residents’ choices will be discussed.

10:00 – 10:30 a.m. BREAK/HOTEL CHECK-OUT

Choose (1) 90-Minute Session 10:30 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.

- R. A Family Support Group - Joe Agnello, MS, MA, Hospice Chaplain, Transitions Hospice, Huntley

Most residents have families that have needs of their own. They may need opportunities to participate in the life of your community or they may have personal needs to resolve, such as grief, guilt or lack of understanding. This session will inform you about how to sponsor support groups and learning experiences for family members.

- S. Empowerment Through Rhythm and Drumming – Philip Seward, Hand and Heart Drumming

In the Drum Circle Facilitators Workshop we will explore the origins of rhythms and how they translate into the diverse programs held by you, the activity professional. Community drumming gives participants the opportunity to be part of something greater than themselves. This activity also opens up a way to become involved and less isolated. It empowers a varied demographic of participants and each of you will find that it will be customized to your particular field. We will be participating in a fun environment in a hands-on manner. This course will be fun and refreshing as well as educational.

- T. Federal and State Updates - Bill Bell, BS, Regulatory Director, Illinois Health Care Association

We will look at how vital the activity department is for our residents and their emotional health and quality of life. In long-term care, we continue to see changes in the types of residents we take care of and in regulations. Who can keep up with all of that and continue to run an activity program each day? This session will help you determine what is needed in activities, prepare for survey, look at recent activity tags and update you on other regulatory changes in long term care.

- U. "om-buh dz-muh n" or "om-boo dz-muh n"- How do I say it & what does it mean? The Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program – Cathy Weightman-Moore, BA, Program Director/Regional Ombudsman, Long Term Care Ombudsman Program, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Rockford, Illinois

"om-buh dz-muh n" or "om-boo dz-muh n"? In this session we will discuss the role of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman and how to work together to meet the goals of the residents living in long-term care. The core mission of the Ombudsman Program, relevant laws and regulations, and how ombudsmen represent residents will be reviewed. Interactive discussion and case studies will be used to illustrate best practices in working cooperatively to help residents maintain dignity and independence.

12:15 – 1:30 p.m. LUNCHEON, (You must indicate on your registration form if you will be attending.)
RAFFLE DRAWING, 50/50 DRAWING, SILENT AUCTION, (must be present to win)

1:30 – 2:30 p.m. V. CLOSING ADDRESS - Why Not Do It Today, The Drum Circle Way – Philip Seward, Hand and Heart Drumming

Learn to find your own empowerment and transfer it to others through community African drum circle. Find ways to connect the power that rhythm and drumming had on their culture and how it survived attempts to eradicate it through slavery. See how the survival of that cultural importance led to the birth of modern western music of all genres.

Spotlight

You don't want to miss this incredible opportunity. Tami Neumann and Cathy Braxton are bringing Dementia RAW to our annual conference. Dementia RAW is shining a spotlight on unique ways to communicate with persons affected by dementia. This is a prerequisite for the Certified Dementia Communication Specialist Training and anyone working with residents with dementia needs 12 hours of training annually (7 of which are offered at this conference).

Volunteers need dementia training as well. If you are CARF accredited this is going to be the next big thing for accreditation! Call Nancy if you have volunteers you think could benefit from this training.
