

ASTA Outstanding NSPC String Project of the Year 2018–19 Award Application

Name of String Project: _____

Director: _____ Master teacher: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Website URL: _____

Has your string project won the ASTA Outstanding String Project award before? _____

If yes, when? _____ (projects may not reapply within 4 years)

Number of music majors enrolled at the university: _____

When was your String Project created? _____

How many students are in the program?

2016-17 _____

2017-18 _____

2018-19 _____

How many undergraduate teachers?

2016-17 _____

2017-18 _____

2018-19 _____

How many graduate teachers?

2016-17 _____

2017-18 _____

2018-10 _____

Please detail the following activities your project has participated in during the last year
(September 2017 – September 2018):

____ Recruitment activities: approximately ____ presentations to ____ students

____ Concerts: approx. # ____ small group/solo concerts, and ____ large group concerts

What types of classes does your String Project offer? Indicate number of classes for each.

____ Large group heterogeneous _____

____ Small group heterogeneous _____

____ Large group homogeneous _____

____ Small group homogeneous _____

____ Private lessons _____

____ Orchestra _____

____ Music theory classes _____

____ Alternative styles _____

____ Other _____

[On the following questions use the space provided or add attachments if desired.]

1) Describe your string project recruitment activities in more detail:

2) Describe how your String Project meets or exceeds the NSPC mission: "Training tomorrow's string educators while providing accessible string instruction opportunities for youth and adults."

3) What makes your String Project unique and outstanding?

4) What has been the impact on the community and/or the student teachers?

5) Please provide any other information you wish on your String Project:

Please feel free to attach up to 5 PDF files showing special project activities and including any letters of support from students, parents, teachers, alumni and community members.

Please complete this form and return it by PDF email attachment to Claire Morrell at:

cmorrell@astastrings.org

Due by December 15, 2018