2ND QUARTER 2019

Message from the Wise Master

Brethren of our Valley:

I want to thank the members of our Valley for their confidence by electing me as Wise Master of the El Paso Chapter of Rose Croix this year. We have a great lineup of Officers for the year and they have already done great things these first six months of 2019.

First and foremost, I wish to thank everyone who assisted with this year's Remembrance and Renewal Observance (also known as Maundy Thursday), the Chuck Wagon, and our Spring Reunion which were all well attended. Thank you to everyone who worked hard and made the Reunion a Success. Our staff, Officers, and Brethren have really gone above and beyond to make all these events a success.

I would like to personally welcome all of our new Scottish Rite Brethren who recently joined our great organization from the April Spring Reunion. I hope these new Scottish Rite Masons find a home here in our beautiful Temple and take a part in the work our Valley is doing in the Orient of Texas. Remember, this is your Temple, so get involved and be part of your Temple!

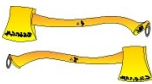

This reminder is not just for our new members but to remind our current members about being part of the Temple. There are various programs and committee's that need leaders to take charge. If you are interested in participating please see the General Secretary Larry Kane, 33°. If you would like to be part of a degree team for the Fall Reunion, seek out the Degree Masters. If you would like to become a Knight of St. Andrew, seek out Brother Barry Boetto, 32°. Lastly, if you would like to be part of the fellowship of the Temple then come and see me about our Arm-In-Arm events. These events are created so that the brothers can come together and get to know each other in a relaxing atmosphere.

The next Arm-In-Arm event will be our quarterly B & C Night, this event is open to ALL Masons! From the youngest EA to the experienced PM, if you would like to bring a male friend or relative who is interested in joining the Scottish Rite or viewing of the Temple, they are also welcomed. For more information about this event or any future events please see me at our next monthly stated meeting!
