MEET OUR JUDGES

Jennifer U Bell, MBA

Entering the AKC conformation ring in 1996 with her first Great Dane, Jennifer Bell has had a love of the sport and the breed from an early age. She showed Great Danes, later breeding as well, for over 20 years. In 2008, she began a career as an all-breed professional handler, handling most working breeds but also many Aussies and Labradors as well. Jennifer handled as many as 50 Great Danes to their championships for herself and clients plus specialized quite a few. Her heart dog was a big fawn male named "Hudson", GCH Yamrb Icon Boys' Nite Out V Diamnd Star, CGC. Pictured is his son, "Dane", CH Colra's Man of the Hour. Jennifer is an AKC Breeder of Merit of Great Danes and a Bronze Breeder of Merit of Beagles, having bred 27 champion Beagles to date. She is currently approved to judge Danes, Beagles and Labradors, as well as Junior Showmanship.

Karen C Desjardins

My husband Dale and I have been breeding and exhibiting Great Danes under the prefix DANEBRIDGE since 1980. Despite a very limited breeding program we have bred and owned four GDCA Award of Merit Winners, six GDCA TOP 20 contenders, a B.O.S. in Futurity, GDCA Best Bred-By Exhibitor (twice), GDCA Reserve Winners Dog (twice), GDCA Reserve Winners Bitch (twice), an All-Breed Best Veteran in Show as well as over 30 champions.

Interestingly enough, our first Great Dane was a black and our first litter produced 14 blacks! We have owned Fawns, Brindles, Blacks, Blues, Harlequins and Mantles. We have also owned and exhibited Belgian Sheepdogs, Belgian Tervuren, and French Bulldogs.

Our mantle dog “Jay-Z” was the first Mantle Male to win a Working Group in the history of the breed, owner-handled by Dale.

I have been a member of the Great Dane Club of Oxford for almost 40 years and have held almost every office. I served as the Show Chair & 2nd Vice-President of Northwestern CT. Dog Club for 25 years. I was the Recording Secretary for the GDCA during the tenure of both Lynn Frischkorn & Nancy Carroll-Draper and presently serve on the Board of Directors of the GDCA.

In 2019, it was with great pleasure that I was given the go-ahead by the GDCA Board of Directors to revise the GDCA Top 20 which now includes music, lighting, and sound production, and it has become a true celebration of our Breed's best, both past and present. I am forever Indebted to the late Cheryl Robbins of Cherkei Boxers for sharing her passion and expertise.

Vicki Kimbell

My love affair with Great Danes began when I was 6 years old. Our neighbors had a big, silly, loveable black Dane named “Henry”. I loved that dog! I knew then that I would have a Great Dane of my own someday.

My first was purchased for $100 from the classifieds in the OC Register. He was a “Boston”, un-cropped and purchased as a pet. Preston was amazing, but, sadly, he had a fatal birth defect and I lost him at 8 months. Still heartbroken, I found another puppy from the classifieds, a brindle girl named Sarah, also purchased as a pet. This breeder showed his dogs. So, he talked me into attending my first dog show. I went to the Santa Ana Valley Dog Shows in 1985. I literally cried when I saw those magnificent dogs in the ring! I was in AWE! I was hooked! I wanted a Show Dog!

I learned that Jill Swedlow had a litter of 8-week-old Great Dane puppies. She invited me to come over to meet them. Joy DeGruccio was there as well. How lucky was I to have “stumbled” onto those two wonderful ladies! I was thrilled that they both decided to take a chance on me, as I of course had never showed a dog before. I was elated to be bringing home my beautiful fawn puppy dog, Desi (CH Sunnyside Desperado). He attained his Championship and did some very nice winning! Because of Desi, I was introduced to some amazing mentors: Jill and Joy, Brucie Mitchell and Pam Winter, to name just a few!

For over 35 years, I have had the privilege of owning, co-owning and breeding some wonderful dogs. We owned BISS CH Surfside Lera Wave Ryder – Logan. He was my first O/H Champion. Logan and Dick Schaefer were in the Top 20 in 2007. Logan has received his Honor Roll Stud Dog Certificate from the GDCA. We are so happy to be able to watch his grandkids in the show ring today.

I have O/H several dogs to their Championships and have loved every minute of it. I am still in awe of this magnificent breed.

Thank you for inviting me to judge the Great Dane Club of California. It is truly an honor.

Tracy Powell, DVM

I was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, spent most of my childhood on Long Island, New York, and have lived in Connecticut for the last 18 years. I have enjoyed being a veterinarian with a special interest in canine reproduction for 20 years. I got my first Great Dane, a harlequin girl named Dulce (Palladium Dulce In The Sky W Diamonds CD RAE CGC), during my final year of veterinary school. Dulce was my introduction to breeding and exhibiting Great Danes in conformation and companion events and was the inspiration for my kennel name, Dulce Danes. Dulce was the first Great Dane to earn Rally Novice and Rally Excellent titles.

I am forever grateful to my original breed mentors -- Jean Chase and Paddy Magnuson. I cannot thank them enough for all the guidance and support they provided over the years. I am a member of the Great Dane Club of America and the Great Dane Club of Oxford, CT. I have held multiple offices for the parent and local club.

I have bred and owned harlequin, mantle, and merle best in specialty show winners, champions, grand champions, national specialty award of merit, reserve puppy bitch in futurity, the first mantle male group winner, the first merle Great Dane AKC champion, and most recently all breed Best In Show. My stud dogs have produced multiple champions including GDCA Top 20 Great Danes and the 2017 National Specialty Best of Breed winner. I am very selective with my breeding program and only breed when I am looking to keep a puppy.

Besides conformation, I enjoy showing in performance events. I have exhibited in scent work, obedience, rally, and agility. Multiple of my Danes have earned the GDCA Versatility Award. My Great Danes are Canine Good Citizens and certified therapy dogs (TDI), along with animal actors that do commercials, print ads, and videos. My bitch Bugs was the first mantle OFA Champion of Health.

In 2017, I was approved by the AKC to judge Great Danes and now I can judge the entire working group. I really enjoy judging and have had the pleasure of judging the GDCA National Specialty, multiple large specialty shows, and the GDCA Top 20.

Adrian Quesada

Coming from Costa Rica and a dairy farming family, I have had all sorts of dogs in my life.

After Michelle and I married, in 1992 we decided to show our Dachshunds, Irish wolfhounds, bulldogs, and French Bulldogs in AKC, Lure Coursing, Earth Dog, Hunt Test and Field Trial.

We started a handling class about 12 years ago in Corona, CA, giving us exposure to dozens of other breeds, which promoted my interest in other breeds and to pursue judging.

I thank you all so much for the privilege of being able to judge your show.

Wishing everyone a good show!

William Stebbins

I began my involvement with the Great Dane in the late 60's. My wife and I, primarily due to our good fortune with having a wonderful mentor, had a lot of great experiences with our Danes. One of them was ranked #1 in the nation and several of them were in the Top 10. There was no Top 20 in those days. I began judging in 1986. I am approved for the Working and Herding Groups and thoroughly enjoy the opportunities I have to be in the show ring.

I was on the Board of the GDC of South Florida for approximately 25 years and was a member of the Ft. Lauderdale DC. I am currently an honorary member of the Ann Arbor KC, a member of the Wolverine Great Dane Club, the Southeast Florida GDC and the Palm Beach County Dog Fanciers Association. I served on the Board of Directors of the Great Dane Club of America.

I was chairman of Judges Ed for the GDCA for several years, have assisted in Breeder's Ed and am in charge of the GDCA's Breed Mentor Program. I write a regular article for the only printed Dane magazine still in existence and, occasionally, have had articles in some of the all-breed magazines as well.

I retired back to Florida in 2012. I am President of the retirement community in which I live consisting of 1,000 single family homes and approximately 1,600 residents. I am on the Presidents Council for the city of Port St. Lucie which has been the fastest growing city in Florida for the last 30+ years and work with the City Council.

I have judged the GDCA National Specialty on two occasions and continue to be grateful for the support that I have received from the Great Dane community.

In Memory Of Rev. Dr. Louis G. Bond

Carol (McKenna) Urick & Rita Suddarth

January 27, 2023 was a sad day and a day of great loss for the Great Dane fancy. That is the day we heard the news of the passing of Rev. Dr. Louis G. Bond. It was news that traveled fast through the Dane community.

Louis was born in Baltimore, Maryland in 1947. He grew up with dogs. As a youngster, his family had a Boxer, a Chesapeake Bay Retriever, a Dalmatian and then finally a Saint Bernard.

Louis was highly educated obtaining his undergraduate degree from Boston University after which he attended Boston College to complete graduate studies in psychology. Following Boston College, he was accepted to Harvard University School of Theology where he earned a graduate degree in Theology. He earned his Doctorate in the Philosophy of Psychology from California Western University. He also was a Reverend and ministered to his flock for over 54 years.

When he met Robert E. Layne (Bob) in college, they moved to an apartment and then purchased their first home in the outskirts of Boston. Bob and Louis were partners for over 50 years. During their lives together, they adopted two children and have two grandchildren.

Back in the first home days, Bob decided to get a dog. They purchased a dog encyclopedia and began to research all breeds. They narrowed the list down to two breeds and finally landed on the Great Dane.

In 1970 they purchased their first puppy. After several starts and stops with a less than ethical breeder, they focused on the dogs directly bred by Rosemarie Robert of Dinro Kennels in Carmel, NY. On their first trip to Rose's (the "mountain" as it was called as she lived at the top of a mountain) they were introduced to Ch. Dinro Strictly Taboo. At that time, Louis had no idea that the dog would be his and Bob's for the last six years of the dog's life. The dog took their breath away. Rose, who was so devoted to breeding and the breed, willingly taught them both about breeding. They spent vacations whelping, learning to evaluate litters and everything else about the breed. With Rose's tragic death in 1978, Louis and Bob learned that they were to take possession of all her dogs. They were tasked in Rose's will to care for, bred and show the dogs. It was Rose's wish that they carry on with her kennel name. They didn't say no or backdown from that overwhelming commitment and challenge. There were some in the breed who wanted to prevent them from carrying on the Dinro name and legacy as Rose had expressed in her will. They overcame those objections.

It was Rose's wish that they carry on with her kennel name. They didn't say no or backdown from that overwhelming commitment and challenge. There were some in the breed who wanted to prevent them from carrying on the Dinro name and legacy as Rose had expressed in her will. They overcame those objections. Louis being Louis wanted a professional handler for the dogs they had to show so they hired the top handling team in the country to handle Dinro Gallant Man. On the first day of the dog's entrance to the show world, the actual handlers never showed up but rather sent their assistant. The dog won his class of an entry of 27 and then they waited nervously for someone to show up for the winner's class. No one showed, so Bob took the dog in and went BOW. At that moment, Louis decided they would train and show their own dogs. Bob became an expert owner handler before that term was coined or owner handling was rewarded. Shortly thereafter they began a partnership with what was to be their lifelong handler, Edward F. Lyons, Jr. (Eddie) who they had met during their many visits to Rose's home. Of course, there were times when there were too many dogs for Eddie to handle so the very capable assistance of Judy Harrington, Terry Silver and others were called upon from time to time.

Rose was Louis's mentor. Rose and Louis believed that Great Danes should have type but must also be able to move.

Louis and Bob went about the business of building a sound breeding program using many of Rose's stud dogs, adding on to their kennel and an entire addition off the kitchen to whelp bitches in.

Louis often quoted Rose until eventually the saying became his as well, "Just because you take a bitch to a stud dog and have a litter, that in itself doesn't make you a breeder. That merely describes the act. Being a breeder means knowing what you want, getting it time and time again and keeping what you bred for." In those days, after judging breeders would get together outside of the ring or outside of hotels and look at each other's dogs and critique them trying to learn and share and grow. To know pedigrees was essential for all the breeders of that time. We all loved to show, but breeding was in our blood. We didn't just want to have a litter from the top dog or bitch, we wanted to improve the breed, one litter at a time. Louis and Bob and later along with co-breeder Carol (McKenna) Urick, produced many champions. At last count, not including the newest generation of dogs being shown by Jayme Lemaire (Carol's daughter), Carol and Bob, the total was 42.

In Memory Of Rev. Dr. Louis G. Bond

Besides Danes, there were also Petite Griffon Bassets, Giant Schnauzers and a Dalmatian, all group winning animals. Louis was not just a knowledgeable breeder. He was also an AKC judge of two groups, the working group and the sporting group. As a breeder judge his opinions were well regarded because, as most breeder judges do, he brought a depth of experience that others outside the breed usually lack. As a judge, it didn't matter who was on the other end of the lead. He looked for type and soundness.

He didn't care if the day ended with all fawns winning, or all harlequins, or all brindles, blacks, mantles, or blues... He didn't care if all handlers were chosen, or the same handler. He didn't care if all owner handlers were selected. He just chose the best dogs. He believed that first and foremost this is a head breed. Type was king. But he also said type had to move. He didn't believe you had to be the biggest Dane to win. As long as you were the height stated in the standard, you had type and you could move, you would be looked at. He would often point out to those closest to him the taller/bigger dog that struggled to get around the ring. He did have a few pet peeves as a judge...don't bring him a dog that wasn't ring ready, don't bring him a dog that wasn't trained and don't bring him a dog that was dirty. He never got over his dislike of these things. He was partial to a well-marked Harlequin. To him that meant irregularly torn patches over a white body. He loved Ch. Sounda's Marathon Man (aka "Mork") and campaigned him to the top 10 in the breed. Mork's photo was also selected for the first Great Dane education video produced by the AKC.

Along with Bob and Carol, he specialed Multiple Group Winning, Multiple BISS, Puerto Rican, Mexican, Canadian Champion, Champion of the Americas Ch. Dinro McKenna's Against All Odds, (aka "Brother".) Brother was #15, in 1989, #10 in 1990 and then #1 in 1991. In addition to being recognized as a Top Producer and Companion Dog he also won the Breed at Westminster (the Garden). Louis and Bob along with Cindy Beus co-owned and campaigned Ch. Skansen's Sheba at Beucinder, a Giant Schnauzer bred by Sylvia Hammarstrom to the # 1 spot in that breed in 1992.

Over the years, Louis was very active in the Great Dane Club of New England and the Great Dane Club of America. He served as GDCNE's President for two terms. He was on the Board of Directors for three terms and served as Specialty Show Chair for six years (back in the day when our specialties were completely independent.) He also acted as the Affiliate Club Representative to the parent club for GDCNE for three terms. He was Division Chair for the Northeast Division for the last 37 years. He was the Show Chairman for the first National which boasted an entry of over 500 Great Danes. He came up with the concept and breathed life into the Top 20 and with the help of Bob, Carol and Eddie, presented it to the breed. The Top 20 for the first five years of the event's existence was a J. Lu-Rob Enterprises production.

He loved to host parties and every May following the GDCNE specialty he and Bob hosted the most marvelous party inviting everyone who wished to attend. There were tents in the beautifully landscaped yard and every sort of culinary treat that one could imagine. There were ice sculptures made into Great Dane Heads (beautiful heads, of course!) and an entire army of tuxedo wearing staff to be sure every guest was well looked after. The entries were huge, and many folks came just to attend the party!

Best in Show eluded him. Not because of his dogs, but because of his ethics. The team was approached more than once that if a handler change occurred BIS was guaranteed. Of course, that was never going to happen. That would not have been fair to the handler so BIS didn't happen either, but the team could sleep at night feeling good about the choice.

If we learn anything at all about Louis' life in dogs it should be this: find a mentor who is knowledgeable and learn all you can, don't ever think you know it all or have the best dogs ever bred...no dog is perfect, always breed to improve the next generation. Understand pedigrees. Appreciate the quality in other dogs and other breeding programs. At dog shows, look around the ring, see who is sitting there that has been around for years, approach them at an opportune time and ask questions. Continue to learn and work hard and don't just look for what is popular in the ring. Learn what is correct and strive for what is correct. Read your standard. Know it inside and out. Remember that color patterns are mentioned for a reason. Remember size is mentioned for a reason. Remember angels and movement are mentioned for a reason and remember the detail of head.

Rev. Dr. Louis G. Bond, he strove for the best in all he did, including breeding and showing and judging. He wasn't afraid of all the hard work that it took to learn and build a kennel that produced consistent type and quality earning over 40 Great Dane champions in his lifetime in addition to the many other champions he co-owned in other breeds (Dobermans, PVGV's, Dalmatians, Scottish Deer Hounds, and Giant Schnauzers.) He endured the heartbreaks that all breeders endure as well as enjoyed the highs that breeders sometimes enjoy.

In Memory of Mindy Donovan-Tandy

Mindy was born in Anaheim, California, on April 17, 1952. She met her husband, Jerry, at work when they were both with Southern California Edison. They married on March 25, 1990 and enjoyed a loving partnership for 32 years. She was an animal lover from childhood, enjoying goats and horses in her youth. Mindy was passionate about raising and breeding champion Cocker Spaniels and Great Danes, and loved showing all over the United States. She was a member of the Cocker Spaniel Club, the Great Dane Club of California, and the Great Dane Club of America. She had a helping spirit and spent much of her time in the past decades working for the clubs she adored. Mindy was an avid reader, often enjoying two to three books at a time, from genres varying from science fiction to westerns and new (to her) authors. On long road trips, she especially enjoyed audio books.

Mindy never missed an opportunity to travel – she made her way from California to New York for the Westminster Dog Show, and would happily travel to any other destination hosting a dog show.

But life wasn't always all about the dogs. Mindy was the best mom to her son, Scott. She supported all his activities, wanting nothing but the best for him. She never missed a baseball game and was always there to support him as he shared in her passion while showing their dogs in juniors. How dedicated was she to her son's activities? She once drove seven hours one way from Tahoe to slide in just in time for Scott's baseball game. Outside of work, Mindy had a full life filled with many hobbies, passions, and interests. Her survivors include her husband, Jerry, and son, Scott.
