Dansville ArtWorks is seeking area artists for our upcoming juried art exhibition at 153 Main Street, Dansville, NY. The theme is “Fall” and selected artists will be exhibited during September and October 2018. All media except photography are welcome (juried photography exhibit will be Feb/Mar 2019).

For this exhibit, Dansville ArtWorks is pleased to announce our Jurors: Jeff Swift of Swift Custom Metal and Mark Stash of Life in the Finger Lakes Magazine.

Jeff Swift

Jeff Swift is the Owner of Swift Custom Metal. While he is a native to western New York, his travels have taken him to live and make his art works in New Mexico, Colorado, and Brooklyn over the past 20 years. He now calls Dansville home once again and runs his metal shop/foundry studio from atop the Genesee Valley in West Sparta.

In his youth, Jeff spent half of his formative years in the library; his mother was an English teacher and worked part time as a librarian pushing literacy and the melody of the written word. When not in the library, Jeff was surrounded by custom machine and colorful character; his father built custom cars and race engines for stock and drag racing cars! He attributes his artmaking philosophy to the narrative that transpired from growing up this way. His work uses autobiographical scenarios, narrative and allegory, even just a speck of it...to tell a very minute part of a memory “even if it didn't happen that way at all!”

Aside from making his own art and sculpture works, Jeff considers himself a “metal mercenary,” often helping others design and create their visions in all metals and vocations - furniture, lighting, and art casting for sculpture in bronze and aluminum and working with clients and artists from all over the world. He believes that art is a lifestyle. “If you put a high level of attention into everything you do, try to do it with elegance and grace, you have no need to call yourself an artist...as everything your gravity pulls from is now art.”
Mark Stash

While in the middle of a successful career in magazine publishing and graphic design, Mark Stash has also chosen to pursue his love of fine art. A great respect for the outdoors, wildlife and the natural world have led Mark to capture that subject matter through the mediums of acrylic, watercolor and pencil. After acquiring a degree while majoring in illustration from the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, Mark started his career as a budding graphic designer and illustrator with Highlights for Children magazine. During this time, he also started his fine art career by displaying his work at various galleries in Pennsylvania.

Mark moved to Rushville, New York, in the early ’90s and opened an art studio and gallery several years later. He presided over an open house the first autumn the gallery was open and had a successful showing. Since then, Mark has become a member of the Naples Open Studio Trail in 2011, and has been displaying his original artwork, art prints and notecards at his gallery every year.

Mark’s style has been evolving from representational and realistic work to pieces that are bordering on impressionism. He continually experiments with his style, and is currently interested in capturing the dramatic light and colors that can make everyday scenes spectacular. Being a hiking, camping and outdoor enthusiast has inspired Mark to capture what he sees around him – waterfalls, woodland scenes, lakes and farmland are subjects that Mark enjoys capturing on canvas and board.

He currently is editor and co-owner of Life in the Finger Lakes magazine and makes a point of highlighting local artisans and craftspeople.

Awards

One artist will be designated best of show by the jurors and receive a cash prize in the amount of $100. An additional People’s Choice Award, a $50 gift certificate to Dansville ArtWorks, will be given based on visitor votes during the two-month exhibit. The People’s Choice Award will be announced on Facebook and Instagram on October 27 during the pick-up party.
