Welcome

President Wetzler welcomed everyone to the meeting.

She noted that, as a follow up to the February meeting, Mr. O'Brien, SUSD CFO (Chief Business Operations) was unable to attend the March meeting but will return when he has more information to share with us regarding the plot of land at Thompson Peak and Horseshoe Canyon.

Field Day was a huge success and a special thank you was given to Aimee Nordori for her hard work on planning the event and all other volunteers for their support.

The Shop For A Cause at Joie that took place on February 23rd was a success raising $1,865 for CRPTO and a special thanks was given to Jenny Shorr for her hard work on planning the event.

Spring Gala Update:

Ms. Parkhill provided an update on the spring gala, Lights, Camera, Auction scheduled for April 7, 2017 and noted that tickets for the event can be purchased online:

<https://copperridge2017.auction-bid.org>

In addition, over 200 auction items had been donated to date and the online bidding will go live at the end of the month.

Principle Update:

Principal Slover noted that the Scottsdale Charros teacher of the year went to Mrs. Hubbell for elementary school and Mrs. Gerding for middle school.

She also noted that the AZ Merit testing dates have been made available to all parents via the teachers.

Assistant Principle Updates:

Mr. Patzlaff noted that front office security enhancements were coming soon and more information will be provided once the new enhancements are in place.

On behalf of Mr. Nesvig, Ms. DeFeyter thanked the PTO for their support of Field Day.

Art and Garden Walk:

The Art and Garden Walk is a community event scheduled for Wednesday, March 22nd from 5pm to 7pm. Barbecue dinner and ice cream will be available for purchase and the fifth grade will have a farmers market (cash only). Also, art masterpiece spring gala auction items will be displayed in Room 608 that evening.

Communication Update:

Ms. Wetzler provided an update in Ms. McCracken’s absence. She announced that the CRPTO and CRS newsletters will be combined going forward so only one newsletter will go out to parents

CRPTO is trying to expand its Facebook page and are asking parents to post pictures and stories on the CRPTO Facebook page.

Parents were reminded again to register to get reminders via text message for CRPTO news and updates at remind.com.

CRPTO ongoing mission is to improve on communications and in this effort, is holding a brainstorming session on March 28th and would like to invite 2-3 non-board members who read communications to join us and help come up with consistent theme and help communicate needs, etc. Please contact Jen Wetzler with interest.
