

Melissa Leapman Classes

May 5, 2018

Melissa Leapman is one of the most widely published sweater designers in the world, whose patterns have appeared in every major knitting publication, including Vogue(R) Knitting and Knit Simple. She has worked as a freelance designer for many leading ready-to-wear manufacturers, noted design houses, and major yarn companies. In addition, her knitting, crochet, and design workshops are extremely popular with crafters at all skill levels. She lives in New York, NY.

Classes:

Ha! Fooled You! Explore interesting stitch patterns that fool the eye. In class, you'll learn to create huge embossed cables that seem to sit on top of the fabric – with no cabling involved! Also, learn to knit beautiful faux fair-isle patterns using (yes!) just one color per row. And, if you've always wanted to play with mitered squares but hate the idea of all those pesky yarn tails, come learn an easy way to make faux ones using simple slip stitches.

Stashbuster Magic: Got yarn? Transform even your tiniest bits and pieces into a beautiful, one-of-a-kind jacket! In this workshop, learn designer secrets for creating and using a magic ball of yarn while knitting a mini version of this one-piece wonder. Best of all, no one will ever suspect it was crafted from left-overs! Magic, indeed

Note: Students must be quite comfortable working in the round with dpn's.
