I pledge to Stand Beside Her...

- I will support and uplift other women with whom I interact at work, in the community, and in my everyday life.
- I will celebrate my unique attributes, abilities, and accomplishments.
- I will celebrate the unique attributes, abilities, and accomplishments of other women without negatively comparing them to my own or seeing them as competition.
- I will consciously choose to speak positively to and of others and not to use negative messaging that tears women down.
- I will be a champion for the development of girls and women. I will take action in my community and support organizations that improve the lives of girls and women. I will educate myself on issues affecting girls and women, and advocate for change where change is needed.

By joining the Stand Beside Her Movement, I am joining like-minded individuals and organizations committed to busting barriers, overcoming obstacles, and changing our current culture.
