The only animals allowed on the grounds are service dogs, animals on exhibit, or those used in entertainment. We do not have accommodations for pets at the Fairgrounds.

Service dogs are welcome at the Fair, but "Comfort Dogs" do not qualify under the ADA guidelines from the Department of Justice and will not be allowed into the Fair. Please refer to the ADA Frequently Asked Questions about Service Dogs for all other details and the full definition.

For the safety of our guests and employees, guns may not be brought onto the Fairgrounds.

All sharp metal objects, such as pocket knives, tableware, scissors and nail clippers (if they also have a folding nail file or scissors) are strictly prohibited, as are guns and other weapons. If you have any of these items when you reach the gate, you can either take them back to your vehicle or dispose of them.

We prohibit anything that can be used as a weapon. This includes pepper spray and similar sprays.

No food or drink

No food or beverages are allowed to be brought into the Fair. The only exception to the rule would be factory-sealed water bottles (meaning reusable containers such as sports water bottles and sippy cups cannot contain beverages when you go through the security check at the entrances). Water bottle shall not exceed 20oz.

Masks and any type of costumes are prohibited through the gates. This is for the safety of all fair goers.

No Revealing Clothing – Clothing that displays offensive messages/language, Masks, transparent clothing, clothing that exposes inappropriate portions of the body, such as string bikini tops, G-strings, bikini bottoms, etc. – Guests are required to wear footwear and shirts at all times.

Please leave skateboards, hover boards, Roller Skates and bicycles (including children's wheeled shoes) and all other wheeled toys at home or in your vehicle.

Promotional materials for my business or band? Can I approach patrons, contracted vendors and/or performers for business?

No. Unauthorized solicitation of business of any kind with patrons, contracted vendors, and/or performers is strictly prohibited. Unapproved solicitors will be escorted off grounds and unauthorized promotional materials will be confiscated. A fine of $200 per occurrence will be assessed to any performer, performance group, vendor, radio station or other Fair participant whose unapproved promotional materials are found anywhere on the grounds.

Advertising flyers? Yes, if they are distributed only within your space.

A fine of $200 per violation applies to the distribution of flyers, authorized or non-authorized, outside your performance time and stage, or booth space.

If you want to know whether you can bring something or not, please send an email to office@vvfair.com.
