Old Business

Year end awards for the club will be November 15th from 12-5Pm. Sign up for food or drink and set up or clean up will be on the website. There is a drop-box for all 4-H pictures for Rachel W to use in the slideshow at year end awards. Stella will also need these pictures for the club scrapbook for last year.

Rachel's survey results, only 5 people did the survey.

New Business

The December meeting will be at the clubhouse at Rigden Farms on December 6th after a movement by Rachel W and a 2nd by Emmett WB.

New community service and club activity ideas. One idea, county 4-H Halloween party for next year. The party will have to be planned during the winter. Kristen M and Rachel W will be in charge of the party. Another idea was putting on a dog show because the other practice dog shows in the county aren't very good. The dog show will also need to be planned in the winter, and be put on in April on a Sunday. The club would be able to use the county supplies to form the rings. Denise, Rebecca and Anya's mom will be in charge of the dog show.

Leisa will not be here for carnival, which will be discussed at the December meeting.

The enrollment forms will be posted on FaceBook.

Fees are $50 for the county and $10 for returning members and $12 for new members per child. T-shirts for the club are $12.50 and are required.

New member expectations and 4-H requirements.

- E-records for all animal projects must be up to date at fair and turned in for judging in September. All non-animal projects are turned in at fair with the project.
- Clover Connections is released monthly and will have dates and classes for projects.
- For your project to be complete, you must have one demonstration, one club community service, your record book and display or animal shown at fair.
- The club requires each member to do at least one demonstration for the club.
