Space is limited and will be on a first reserved, first serve basis. Must have 10 students for the class to make.

Life is hard and days will be both good and bad. And how you handle those times will be what forms your character, integrity and respect for others. “God is my ROCK. He is a solid foundation. We will spend the week: studying cairns and what makes each particular path marker personally perfect, working through rocky situations and how to handle tough times and tough people (Being stuck between a rock & a hard place), learning about Geology, complete with a field trip and of course we will be trying our hand at making ROCK CANDY. Yes this year... we will, we will ROCK YOU
