

E-Rate Application process

Communications Audit Services represents our clients throughout the entire E-Rate funding process. This is all done as part of our all-inclusive fee which is based upon successful funding. We try to make the process as pain free as possible for our clients in order to free up valuable internal resources