thank you

Archbishop Vienneau has recorded a video, of the "Consecration of the Archdiocese of Moncton to the Holy Virgin Mary in this Time of Pandemic". This prayer is for all the faithful of our diocese and can be viewed in YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xux-1pgu0a0>.

Thank you we appreciate your continued support during this difficult time. If possible, we ask you to continue your weekly / monthly donation.

Options are: You can mail in your envelope or drop it off in our mail slot in the front door of the rectory which faces Dominion Street. If you would like to consider changing over to pre-authorized payments, please leave a message on our phone line and someone will call you back to set this up. Or simply set aside your envelopes and make your donation when we reopen. Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers until we gather again.

POPE FRANCIS: DAY OF PRAYER AND FASTING AND WORKS OF CHARITY MAY 14, 2020

As prayer is a universal value, I have accepted the proposal of the Higher Committee of Human Fraternity so that May 14th believers of all religions unite spiritually in a Day of Prayer and Fasting and Works of Charity, to implore God to help humanity overcome the coronavirus pandemic. Remember May 14th, all believers together, believers of different traditions, to pray, fast, and do works of charity."

Faith Development St. Augustine's Church

With our sessions coming to a close so suddenly this year, I never had a chance to wish everyone a great summer or properly thank those that have helped to make our program a success again this past year.

To the facilitators & helpers who faced the biggest challenges of presenting the program with such enthusiasm, to Fr. Angus for sharing his knowledge and his wonderful joy with us at our sessions, and especially to all of the parents and children for participating so fully during our sessions....THANK YOU SO MUCH

Our sessions would not be as successful as they are without all of you.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you a wonderful summer and pray that you will remain safe & healthy during this new way of living. I am truly looking forward to seeing you all again when we are allowed to gather together in the fall.

With peace & blessings

Eileen

CANADA HEALTH DAY MAY 12TH

Canada Health Day is celebrated in health care facilities and community services across the country. This day reminds us that health and healing are essential aspects of our baptismal vocation. We are called to take responsibility for our personal health: to prevent illness and to seek a healthy lifestyle. Good health concerns the physical, emotional, social and spiritual health of our communities, respect for God's creatures and the nurturing of the whole earth.

Prayers of the Faithful

For the church, the temple built of the living stones, and for all entrusted with spreading the good news to the world.

We pray.

For people all over the world who are longing to see the face of God, and to know his loving care for them.

We pray.

For the courage to ask faith questions without belittling or diminishing others.

We pray.

For our mothers, and for all women who have helped shape our faith.

We pray.

For those for whom Mother's Day is difficult: those mourning the loss of a child or the loss of their mother.

We pray.

For the sick; for those who have died, and to all who mourn the loss of a loved one.

We pray.

Mother's Day Blessing

May those with children feel appreciated,

May those grieving empty arms be comforted,

May those mourning and missing the one who gave them life

Be wrapped in goodness and love today.

Happy Mother's Day

Exploring our Faith

“Believe in God, believe also in me”

Today's Gospel reading takes place at the Last Supper – just after Judas left and Jesus told the remaining eleven disciples that He must soon depart too. This reading starts and ends with the command that to believe in God is to believe in Jesus. I feel that after all we've lived in the last few months, the uncertainty, the anxiety, some may have felt fear; how many of us can truly and honestly say that we've felt belief? A troubled heart is part of our humanity, it feels like when we deal with one issue, two others pop up. And if we currently have nothing to worry about, we tend to worry about what may come. Oh the anxiety! My friends, rest assured that there is a big difference between being worried and having a troubled heart. The difference lies in how we deal with the inevitable problems and challenges that come our way. Jesus offers us a solution to having an untroubled heart: “Believe in God, believe also in me.”

It seems simple enough doesn't it? Believe in God. But does this happen naturally, are we to just shout from the roof tops: “I believe in God” and it'll just make us believe? Worry not if this is where you are. First, just remember that God loves you, period, no conditions. Second, as far back as the last supper, people struggled to believe. It's part of that human condition I mentioned earlier. Most of us need to see it with our own eyes and because of that Jesus said: “Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves.” By the works, Jesus is referring to all that he has done in his time ministering to God's people. To believe in the works, is to believe in Jesus and to believe in Jesus is to believe in God. He reassured his disciples that to believe in one is to believe in the other “Very truly I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.”

Our faith (and belief) is and should be grounded by the care Jesus took for us back then and in our future: “And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.” Jesus said this to his disciples to reassure them that there is ample room where He will be. Therefore, they need have no fear that they will not find a place for them in His company. “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also.” If the disciples (and us) know Jesus, then they also know the way to God. He speaks of their mutual indwelling. If you cannot believe this then maybe you can believe on account of Jesus' “works”, these also being the works of God. Those who believe have the power to do these and even greater works. This seems extraordinary, but is really just a matter of believing with untroubled hearts that the power comes from God – this we will witness in next week's Gospel.

A Prayer for My Mom

Dear Father up in Heaven,
Bless my Mother here on earth.

You gave my spirit earthly life.

My Mother gave me birth.

She follows in Your footsteps,

Her heart is full of love.

Please keep her in
Your loving care,
and bless her
from above.

by Ron Tranmer

Let us not let the merry month of May, the merry month of Mary slip by without entering deeper into the loving embrace of our Blessed Mother. She will in turn bring us closer to the ultimate relationship with Her Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Each day I will offer a reflection based on the writings St. John Henry Cardinal Newman from a collection of his writings entitled Meditations on Mary, Our Mother.

Mary played a significant part in the journey of this blessed Saint from Anglicanism to the Roman Catholic faith. The brilliance of this man's mind will help us focus on our own journey towards God. Fear not that it will be complicated as we will journey with our loving Mother as our guide.

Each day I will offer a reflection posted to our Diocesan website and our own Queen of All Saints website, with an invitation to join me afterward to say the Rosary.

I hope you will join St. John Henry Cardinal Newman and myself for our Month of Mary.
