

The Nevada State Apartment Association holds an annual ceremony called the Jewel Awards. The awards are given in recognition of superior contributions and exemplary achievements in the multifamily housing industry in Nevada. Teresa won Property Manager of the Year for large scale properties with 226 or more units.

Teresa became the property manager of Crown Point in Laughlin in September of 2014. She has earned many credentials in the history of her career that have contributed to her many successes as a property manager.

She began her career as a Leasing Consultant and worked her way up to a Regional Manager with a nationwide company. In 2011, she received her ARM (Accredited Residential Manager) through the Institute of Real Estate Management, and completed training in business ethics.

She is currently a member of the Institute of Real Estate Management, allowing her to practice property management anywhere in the world.
