COVID Updates

We hope that most campers will have gotten their COVID vaccinations by the start of camp; however, we expect that we will still need to have some protocols in place. This might involve some social distancing, mask wearing, and restrictions on certain types of activities. Please check our website for the latest updates:

MT. LASSEN JFO DAILY SCHEDULE

Morning Meditation - Begin each day with God in quiet reflection overlooking the meadow.

Singing - Praise God in joyous, spirited song.

Talks - Listen to our speakers as they share their personal faith journeys.

Rhythms - Use exercise and movement as a means of experiencing wholeness.

Creatives - Let God speak as you use various mediums, such as chalk, writing, and clay.

Prayer Groups - In small adult groups we share with each other while experiencing the power of prayer as we connect to God.

Rest - Take advantage of a quiet horizontal hour.

Relaxation & Fun - From softball games to swimming, many activities are available in and around beautiful Mt. Lassen. Daily group events will be announced, or spend time with your friends and family playing together at the game tables or fishing at the creek.

“The deepest passion of our lives is to learn how to love God with all the strength of our dedicated bodies, all the intelligence of our dedicated minds, all the loyalty of our dedicated hearts, and all the devotion of our dedicated souls.”

MT. LASSEN
JFO

Empowered by God's love,
we honor each other,
acknowledging differences,
as together we go farther out to explore new frontiers of God's limitless love
and opportunities for service.
