How many people will be working in the booth? _____ Cornstock will provide wristbands designated for vendor workers allowing access to the food vendor area only.

About the Concert on the Hill: Our goal is to draw more than 4,600 in attendance to this year's concert. This is the 16th year of providing big name entertainment for the residents of Anderson County and surrounding areas to enjoy.

Vendor Requirements:

- Concert on the Hill food vendors are required to follow all food and safety requirements as established by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment.
  - All food workers are required to wear blue food vendor wristbands to enter concert gates and food booth. They will also need a Concert wristband
  - Vendor workers are not allowed to solicit or sell food roaming in the concert area or product outside of the vendor booth area.
  - Food vendors are to be set up prior to 3:00 p.m. Food vendor vehicles will have access to the concert area until 3:00 p.m. and after the concert is over (approximately 10:00 p.m.). Concert gates will open at 3:30 p.m. Two (2) concert access vehicle passes will be provided to vendors and can only be used before and after the concert as specified above. Please check with the ACCF about parking locations near concert area during concert.
  - Proof of insurance: Proof of insurance covering your civic, non-profit or for-profit organization is required. Please attach to this application.
  - Water is not available directly inside the concert area but can be accessible within the park for vendor's use.
  - Trash receptacles will be provided. You must leave the area as clean as you found it.
  - No alcoholic beverages are allowed in the vendor area.
  - You must have adult supervision in instances where children who work your vendor booth are under the age of 18 years. Because of the hot grills, younger children will not be allowed to be running around in the back of the food area. This area is too congested and we want to keep everyone safe.
  - Sales Tax: Food vendors are required by Kansas law to charge and remit sales tax, currently 8.50%. We can provide you with temporary festival sales tax certificate upon request. Remittance of sales tax is due to the Kansas Department of Revenue immediately following the festival. It is up to you, not ACCF, to remit sales tax to the Kansas Department of Revenue on your behalf. Per requirement by the Kansas Department of Revenue, by completing this application along with your signature you are showing the following intent: "All federal, state, and local laws governing retail sales tax must be followed. I understand the rules and regulations of this festival and will comply. I realize that failure to comply may result in expulsion from this festival."
- . We reserve the right to determine the number of vendors at our event.

Concert on the Hill Food Vendor Application Deadline: May 1, 2020.

Anderson County civic, non-profit organizations or businesses must submit applications by May 1, 2020. Vendors will be contacted after May 5th by Kathy Schulte. Out of county vendors can apply after May 1st.

The Anderson County Corn Festival Committee reserves the right to assign space in accordance with other exhibitors/vendors and products currently booked. We will strive to maintain a balanced variety of products and services for the purpose of not overloading the event with similar or like products. The Anderson County Corn Festival Committee reserves the right to accept and/or reject any application as the committee deems necessary to best serve festival attendees.
