David Solomon Lecture

This month we will have a lecture by local legend David Solomon.

You may know David from his first book Solomon's Mind written by Eugene Burger, or from his second book The Wisdom of Solomon, or from his BBM DVD sets The Card Solutions of David Solomon and Solomon's Secret Subtleties, or as one piece of the world famous Chicago Sessions with Simon Aronson and John Bannon, or possibly even as the hand model for Cardially Yours!

He has a new book out called Solomon's Secrets, and he is excited to share his new material with Ring 43! As one of the students of Ed Marlo, this lecture will definitely appeal to the card workers of us. As someone who doesn't lecture too often, it is a real treat to see him work, a great event to start to start the year!

La Rabida Hospital Performance

Ring 43 Parade!

The Linking Ring August issue had a 20-page Parade written by Robert K. Miller, John Falk, Martin Mercy, and Lynn Miner (pictured above with waitress Charlotte). It's called The Chicago Magic Brunch Bunch Parade. The second part is scheduled for September. Keep an eye out when you receive your August and September issues of The Linking Ring!

Dedicated to teaching its members to become better magical entertainers!

On August 24th, Ring 43 magicians performed at the La Rabida Pediatric Hospital Back to School Dance at the hospital's South Shore Lake Front campus in Chicago. The party had a magic themed dance featuring Ring 43 magicians Ryan Lawrence (2018 Ring 43 Close Up Contest winner) and John Mussman (Close Up Contest MC).

The Amazing Ryan Lawrence presented a high energy stage act targeted perfectly to the 6 to 16 year old crowd in attendance. His interactive sorcery included effects with coloring books, giant cards, silks and other magic and wonderful jokes. He used volunteers from many of the delighted and amazed patients and family members.

John Mussman (see photo on page 1) performed walk-around magic to the many patients and family members seated at tables. He presented rabbits that reproduced, cards that became blank, billiard balls that changed colors, and coins that disappeared, reappeared, and changed places.

DID YOU KNOW...?

There are some wonderful people that make this newsletter happen every month. I, Danny Rudnick, your newsletter editor, and your president Mike Kamlet work tirelessly to create content to be published on these pages. Sometimes we have guest articles, like the one above by John Mussman! Sometimes we even have magicians in the Ring write a trick review for us.

If you would like to find another way to get involved with the club, might I recommend submitting an article? It is a great way to share your ideas and get a conversation started with fellow members. Any ideas can be sent to me at the email address below. I can't wait to hear from you!

THE PREZ SAYS: CHANGES

This year at Ring 43 you'll notice several changes. First, we had to change the meeting nights for September and we have to reschedule Michael Finney. We did this to accommodate our lecturers. As many have seen, Penguin Magic scheduled a mini-convention on our meeting night in September. We do not wish to compete so we have rescheduled David Solomon for the 4th Friday, September 28th.

We were hoping to host Michael Finney In October, but due to scheduling conflicts, it looks like we will have him come in the spring. We will host Chris Philpott on our normal meeting night in October. I'm sure you will enjoy all these lectures and agree that Michael Finney is worth the wait.

The next set of changes will take place on non-lecture nights. We will be adding two new segments to the meeting. The first one will be "the monthly move." Focused on card magic, we will have one member present a single move. We encourage others to join in and share tips, other handlings, etc.

The next new feature will be "show and tell." The intention of show and tell is to bring in an interesting prop, a collectible, or even a book/effect that you would like to review with the club. Show and tell is really not intended to be a performance, but another opportunity for members to share something interesting. More information on how to participate will be included in future newsletters.

And finally, our webmaster, Barrett Solberg, has announced that this will be his last year as our webmaster. If you have any interest in taking over this position, please let me or Barrett know. We currently use standard tools to manage our site, so even if you don't have a lot of experience, we have time to provide training during a transition period. We need your help to continue to make Ring 43 the best club around!

This month's stamps feature

. . . . Scooby-Doo

It's not magic, but...

Magician/Author James Swain has a new novel, The King Tides. Swain has written 20 novels featuring casino cheats, magicians, and even serial killers. This latest book has a new character, Jon Lancaster, an ex-Seal, ex-cop turned detective who gets caught up in a case to track down a serial killer. It's an enjoyable, quick read.
