19th Sunday Ordinary Time Year A Matthew 14:22-33

“After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

Excerpt of 'Peter Walking Upon the Water'

By John Newton

A Word from Jesus calms the sea,
The stormy wind controls;
And gives repose and liberty
To tempest-tossed souls.
To Peter on the waves he came,
And gave him instant peace;
Thus he to me revealed his name,
And bid my sorrows cease.
Then filled with wonder, joy and love,
Peter's request was mine;
Lord, call me down, I long to prove
That I am wholly thine.
Unmoved at all I have to meet
On life's tempestuous sea;
Hard, shall be easy; bitter, sweet,
So I may follow thee.

Pastor's Study Desk Notes

Dear St Anthony & St Pius Families,

19th Sunday Ordinary Time Year A

Matthew 14:22-33

"Everybody needs a little time away!" Remember that classic old song from the band Chicago! This is Jesus' message to His apostles in the gospel today. He puts the apostles into a boat for a little 'downtime' for themselves as they float upon the sea overnight. Jesus gives them this time so they can re-synchronize their inner clocks, assisted by the rhythmic wash of waves or the stillness of the sea. And Jesus, Himself, also takes time out, going up the mountain to be alone and pray (to commune with the Father & Holy Spirit). Jesus is setting this example for His disciples. He demonstrates the spiritual importance of keeping time every day to pray and check in with the Father. We see Jesus take such regular spiritual time-outs, all throughout the gospels! He steps away from the busy-ness of ministry work or the chaos of the city crowds to recharge His inner strength and reset His inner peace. Jesus is modeling an example of the role prayer serves in daily refreshing our souls.

Of the four gospels, Luke seems to be the one most concerned to show Jesus regularly taking time out to be alone for personal prayer. Some of those occasions, that we all know Jesus spent time alone in prayer were like the times right before he chose His apostles, or just prior to when He miraculously multiplied the loaves and fishes, or in his final night in the Garden of Gethsemane. But Luke has several additional episodes describing Jesus' faithful practice of quiet time & praying alone. In Luke 3:21, we hear that "Jesus had been baptized and was praying, when heaven opened..." Or, Luke 9:18 tells us that "Once when Jesus was praying in solitude, and the disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" At the Transfiguration, in Luke 9:28 we hear that Jesus took a small group alone to pray together, when "Jesus took Peter, John, and James, going up the mountain to pray." Luke 5:16 states that it was a typical pattern for Jesus to seek out solitary time, when it says, "Jesus would withdraw to deserted places to pray". Luke 6:12 adds, "In those days he departed to the mountain to pray, and he spent the night in prayer to God." His disciples take note of this routine practice, and in Luke 11:1, it tells us that "Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him. 'Lord, teach us to pray....'" The disciples are watching Jesus' example of prayer! And then, in Luke 22:41, it says (In garden of Gethsemane) "After withdrawing about a stone's throw from them and kneeling, he prayed." I'd say too, that when Jesus hung upon the cross alone, there was no more solitary a place. There alone on the cross, Luke 23:34 tells us that "Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do" and again in Luke 23:46 "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit", & when he had said this he breathed his last." Clearly, Jesus models solitary prayer for us!

Here's a good question: Why couldn't Peter finish the task that Jesus gave him to do (come to Him on the water)? This faltering of Peter may be comparable to the time when the apostles failed to cast a demon out, and they had to go to Jesus because they couldn't get it done? Mark 9:28-29 tells us that, "When Jesus entered the house, his disciples asked him in private, "Why could we not drive it out?" Jesus said to them, "This kind can only come out through prayer" Prayer makes the difference!

Matthew 14: 29-30 says that "Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was, he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Peter began fine, he just started slipping and going under as the wind took more and more of his attention. Usually, we say that whatever Jesus calls us to, He will see us through, yet when Peter is called in this case, he sinks. Why? Well, Jesus is there with Peter, (standing on the water in the wind with Peter-so Jesus is doing His part. But obviously Peter's distractedness is taking him down. Maybe it was Peter's fear of the waves & wind, or Peter's pride in showboating his water-walking thrill in front of the other apostles, but Peter was not keeping faithful focus on Jesus. I think Peter's sinking is due to Peter not taking full advantage of the prayer-time before his walk. Jesus specifically put them all in the boat to cross to the other side for the purpose of having them 'decompress' and be refreshed. Again, 'Everybody needs a little time' to rejuvenate their spent spirits. We can all run down, and we need time in prayer with God to reset our soul's balance. So, Peter did not use wisely this quiet opportunity Jesus gave him away from the crowds. When Jesus called him to 'walk', Peter wasn't 'centered' enough in Christ to accomplish it. Thomas Keating, a great teacher of the 'Centering Prayer' method, says that if we are faithful to such dedicated prayer times (he advises at least 2x a day for about 20 minute each), then, we and others will notice a difference in our disposition and daily work. Fr Keating jokes that people who know us, may even say to us at times if we haven't kept our proper schedule of prayer, "Hey, I notice that you sure are irritable and uptight, don't you need to do your prayer-thing-Have you missed it today?" Similar to when somebody skips breakfast and gets grumpy, so also if Christians slip and miss their scheduled prayer routines, then people will notice our lack of focus on Christ, or our lack of peace in our hearts when we face storms. Again, prayer does make a difference! Blessings, Fr Brian

What is Eucharistic Adoration? How do I spend a Holy Hour in Adoration?

1. Practice patience: When you sit down to pray do you constantly glance at your watch? It's okay! Be patient with yourself. This is your time with the Lord and He's happy to see you! Pop in to say "Hello, Jesus!" Stay one hour or stay ten minutes. We do not have to say or do anything to focus on the One who loves us so much. Just 'be' with Him
2. Open your heart to Jesus; Adore Him: Tell Jesus everything that's on your mind, then listen for His response.
3. Ask forgiveness & Intercede for others: Request a special blessing for those who have hurt you. Ask forgiveness from those you may have neglected or hurt in past. Bring all those who have asked you to pray for them before the Blessed Sacrament.
4. Be thankful: Thank God for all the big things in your life: your family, a great friendship or job interview. Thank Him for the small gifts of the day, too: the sun shining through the trees or even cup of tea. Nothing goes unnoticed by God.
5. Practice silence: We are so driven by distraction that silence can be hard, even uncomfortable, but we become closer to Christ when we are silent. There is no place on earth where God is more present than in the human heart. The heart is truly God's great abode, the temple of silence ... The Father waits for His children there, in the silence of their own hearts.
