

JUNE 22 & 23, 2024
12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

By: The Word Among Us

Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?
(Mark 4: 41)

It wasn't an unreasonable question for the disciples to ask. They had been with Jesus and seen him perform healings, teach crowds of people, even dispute with religious leaders. But they had never seen anything like this! Sure, as fishermen they knew how to survive violent squalls on the Sea of Galilee. But never had anyone done it by calming the wind and the waves with a command!

The disciples' question is a good one for you to ask as well. Scriptural answers can help you not only reorganize but also proclaim the power and goodness of the Lord.

Who is this? He is the Word of God, who was at the Father's side from the beginning, the One through whom all things came to be (John 1: 2-3). He was an active participant when the Father created everything. He is just as involved in your life.

Who is this? He is the same God as the One who "shut within doors the sea" and "set limits for it" (Job 38: 8, 10). Since he created all things, he has authority over those created things. Nothing is beyond his control, not even the greatest challenge you may be facing today.

Who is this? He is the One who, today's Responsorial Psalm tells us, "hushed the storm to a gentle breeze" (107: 29). He can bring peace to the turmoil in nature, and he can do the same for the turmoil in your own heart.

Who is this? He is the One whose word goes forth and accomplishes his purposes and plans in this world (Isaiah 55: 11). He spoke, and all things came into being. His word has the same power in your life, the power to bring the healing, forgiveness, and peace that he proclaims.

Who is this? This is Jesus, eternal Son of the Father, who creates and sustains all things (Colossians 1: 16 17). He holds all of creation together. And he holds you and your loved ones as well.

"Jesus, I praise you, for through your word, you show me who you are—the all-powerful God!"

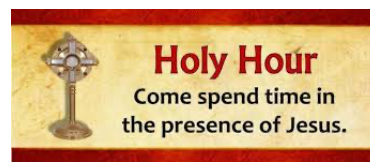

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

During the past couple of weeks, many parish improvement projects have been underway throughout the church and parish grounds. This weekend, I would like to highlight the landscaping in front of the church. For years this area has been neglected and overgrown. Last Saturday, a crew of volunteers worked hard to remove overgrown plants and to prepare the soil along the fence for new plantings. I was happy to see several young men of the parish helping with this project! To repair the damaged water system and pull up the weed barrier (which was destroyed by gophers), it was necessary to remove the agapanthus and several other established plants. While most of the rose bushes were damaged by gophers, care was taken to salvage the healthy roses and anything else of value. Thanks to the generosity of many parishioners and the success of the bake sale last spring, new drought-tolerant and deer-resistant plants are being put in. The goal for this project is to create a beautiful and inviting space in front of the church that will also be low-maintenance. Thank you to all of those who are helping with these improvements!

Blessings,

Fr. Pacheco

News From SJSDR Catholic School

With God's many blessings which include being a part of this wonderful parish with all of your support, our school has successfully ended its 4th year of operations. Our work continues to support families of our parish and our community to give their children a truly Catholic education in which the students are able to grow in more than just academic strength. Some of our students were able to work ahead of grade-level, while others received invaluable, unlimited one-on-one support, in math and reading. Our students study Latin which is the language of science and of our Faith. This year, too, we added a music program and enjoyed many wonderful field trips to take our learning out into our community. And most importantly, our students are always complimented for their kindness, respect, honesty, and hard work when we go out into the community. We would love to have your family join our school family. We have been able to solve every one of the problems our families ran into in making this possible for their children.

Call today or stop by to find out how we can help you! Call or text Kathleen Kasperson 707-513-5672.

Calling the Men of OLGC

We would like to start a scouting troop for the young boys of our parish and our community. We need a small group of men who would help to form this troop and lead the boys. It would be a Christ-centered, boy-focused, church-based mentoring and discipleship program that speaks to the heart of a boy in the context of outdoor adventure. Boys from Kindergarten to 12th grade would engage in a troop setting with male mentors where they would be challenged to grow in character, understand their purpose, serve their community, and develop practical leadership skills to carry out the mission for which they were created.
