Mayor: Edwards reported that he received a copy of the Quarterly Landfill Report. He also reported that he had contacted the city attorney regarding the progress on the unfinished sewer project. Finally, Edwards reported that he spoke with representatives from Alliant Energy regarding burying private lines. Alliant Energy will be sending letters to all residents. Meanwhile, residents can contact Alan Klein at 791-3222 with any questions.

Streets: Thomassen reported that he received a quote from Denco for crack filling the streets for a total of $17,925. He will contact Manatt's for an additional quote. Thomassen also drove around the City looking for No Parking signs. He found that additional signs are needed on Pioneer and Tonka Trail. DeGoey will check with Clark to see if the City has any No Parking signs in storage.

Sewers: DeGoey reported that Karl Peters is working on the remaining sewer line. He set another manhole last week. He also reported that JP Drain is reviewing the video of the sewer lines to see if they can line a section that was not lined previously by SAK Construction.

Parks: Humke reported that the parks are being mowed. The Council also discussed what type of trees to plant in the park.

Tree Steward: Fouts will follow up on a request from 103 Walnut Dr to remove three trees.

Storm Sewers: No report

City Clerk: No report

Old Business: None

DeGoey moved and was seconded by Humke to adjourn the meeting at 8:05 p.m. Motion carried 4-0.
