The Templeton High School (THS) Athletes of the Month were recognized today at a special lunch co-sponsored by the THS Eagles Athletic Boosters in conjunction with Chulo's Café & Cantina.

The October 2018 THS Athletes of the Month in alphabetical order are: Alyssia Corella, Kendal Covert, Mike Medina, and Sophia Sanchez.

The award winning athletes were nominated for athletic excellence combined with those traits that foster excellence. Some of those qualities may include leadership, work ethic, attitude, and citizenship, coupled with how well the nominee juggles athletics with various other responsibilities and interests in their lives – including academics, extracurricular activities, work, and community service.

Freshman Alyssia Corella was nominated by Cross Country Head Coach Nicole Taylor who said, "Alyssia always comes to practice in a good mood, gives it her all, and never complains. She's a top runner for us this year and leads by example. Great things are in store in the upcoming years for Alyssia!"

Senior Kendal Covert was nominated by Varsity Girls Volleyball Head Coach Cameron Schaeffer, "Kendall is a dedicated player that shows up every practice prepared to improve. She displays consistent play and demonstrates a very good work ethic. Kendall is a great player to coach and teammate to have."

Senior Mike Medina was nominated by Varsity Football Head Coach Tyler Lane, "Mike has come so far over the last year. He is the lynch pin of our special teams unit. He is so consistent and hard working. Every week he works tirelessly to improve and has come through on numerous occasions. He is such a great kid to coach and we are lucky as a program to have him involved."

Sophomore Sophia Sanchez was nominated by JV Head Coach Cameron Schaeffer, "Sophia has shown a lot of improvement this season with her technique and teamwork skills. Her competitiveness has helped her overcome challenges that she has faced. Sophia is very deserving of this recognition. Recently, Sophia exemplified being a great teammate when she took over calling lines for a teammate when a spectator argued her call."

The THS Athletes of the Month program is sponsored by the THS Eagles Athletic Boosters and Chulo's Café & Cantina, nominations and athlete logistics are coordinated by THS Athletic Director Lindsay Franklin, and the overall event is coordinated / published by Soaring Eagle Press and its sponsors.

TMS OCTOBER 2018 FITNESS STUDENTS RECOGNIZED

"Work hard, participate, and do your best!"

Each month, Templeton Middle School (TMS) coaches Suzanne Forzetting and Don Crow nominate a boy and a girl from the 7th and 8th grade who personify the TMS Fitness Students of the Month motto, "To reach your goals, work hard, participate, practice, and do the best you can."

The October 2018 TMS Fitness Students of the Month are: Sarai

Vasquez and Trevor Tonini from the 7th grade, and Ella Pontiusa and Landen Miller from the 8th grade.

The students each receive a special TMS Fitness Student T-Shirt, and are treated to a delicious lunch from Templeton Market & Deli that includes turkey sandwiches made from fresh, daily roasted turkey breast, along with baby carrots, baked chips, an apple, freshly baked cookies, and bottled water – courtesy of TMS Fitness Students Sponsors Keith & Georgia Vreeken of Professional Home Inspections.

How do we cope with demands for water as we enter an era of scarcity?

Stanford News – October 12, 2018

By Edmund L. Andrews

Urban water systems in California and elsewhere face a time of reckoning. Groundwater aquifers are being depleted and rivers are drying up, even as demand for water keeps climbing. Yet cities can no longer meet society's thirst by importing more water from far away.

Trump attacks California over water, fire management

The Hill – October 23, 2018

By Miranda Green and Timothy Cama

President Trump on Tuesday volleyed a number of attacks at California over the state's water practices and fire management, going so far as to threaten withholding future federal aid.
