

Debra Gow

Debra was born in Calgary Alberta, moving to the coast almost 40 years ago. From the beginning of her career she has been painting as a full-time artist supporting herself with her art. She has been a sought-after art instructor for over 25 years.

In 2010 Debra opened her own Gallery (Gallery68) where she instructed and exhibited for many years. Recently Debra retired and moved to Ashcroft BC where she had a studio built on the property. She paints everyday, creating pieces for shows, competitions & commissions.

She is involved in the Art community in and around Ashcroft. Debra is an Active Status member of the Federation of Canadian Artists and has recently moved her chapter status to the Kamloops FCA.
