

Maggie Elena

When I was 8, I was accepted into the art club with an award-winning unicorn drawing adorned with sequins. It was at that moment, I knew art would have a huge influence in my life. I didn't realize how much though. I am now co-owner of Black Alchemy tattoo and art studio and working on my apprenticeship as a tattoo artist. Dream big.

