

Baldwin Home & School Club

Minutes for Agenda

September 10, 2019

www.juliabaldwin.net

- I. Welcome!
- II. Teacher updates
- III. Budget
- IV. Fundraisers
- V. Family Dance/Room Parent/ Misc. Events

Attendees: HASC Team, Ms. Barlesi, Thomas Friedrich, Mr. Cotton, Ms. Piazza, Kristy Loeper, Ms. Wallace, Brittany Amajor, Posie Olmedo, Leah Gaide, Ms. Humphrey, Angela Console, Stephanie Giamanco

Teacher updates: The Library is offering free books to all. They were books that were being looked at for school use but in the end lost out to another book for in class use. These are primarily History content. Ms. Drake also needs some help in stamping books. See School Secretary for details.

- May 8 2020 is the target date for a Multi-Cultural Day event. See Mr. Cotton for any ideas you might have to offer.
- Upper grade classes have started their annual "Buddy" classes.
- March 2 2020 is Math Literacy Night 5:30-6:30pm Discussion in process in how it will be executed. See Ms. Wallace for any input or volunteering for assistance to the event.
- April 7 2020 will be a Stem Math Night. Ideally to have one every month till school is out. See School Secretary for details
- Talent show will be held this year (Exact time TBD) and managed by Mr. Greenwood and Mr. Cotton
- Teacher goal setting starts the week of September 16
- Student count was shared, and we are at 570 general education students. Slightly higher than 2018-2019 school year. 2nd, 3rd and 5th grades impacted. Ratios are not exceeded and no combo classes.

Budget discussions: At the end of last school year HASC took in as many recommendations and requests as possible to help formulate the budget for 2019-2020 school year. A Dance program from a local proprietor was brought up. A Mobile Dairy Farm event brought up as well. Still reviewing all submissions as well as including historic line items on budget last year.

Fundraisers:

- Charleston Wrap going well, on track for goal of $25L gross sales. Will need volunteers in November to hand out to parents. Notices sent out to parents to come to school to pick up.
- Scholastic Book Fair planned for 10/24-10/31 Looking for blocks of time for classes to come to the Fair. Liza to look at Library schedules as Ms. Humphrey mentioned as a possible option.
- Movie Night discussed and Thomas to lead for a tentative October 25 date.
- See's Candy to be slipped in Oct-Nov
- Poinsettia discussed but no event lead identified.
- Holiday Boutique is December 7 piggybacked by the 6th grade Penguin Patch. Santa Claus will be there for free pictures and jolly.
- Father-Daughter-Family Dance discussed, various ideas In February Valentines theme discussed, that Friday is a day off for children, discussed for that Thursday
- Family Dinner Nights brought up, many ideas. Always open to anyone to approach a vendor and coordinate with HASC, Principal.
- Room Parent, Heather received 9 letters of interest. She will follow up and engage teachers on a process to put in place. Scoping out the position is important, so all parties are in alignment.

Reminder: APEX Fun Run: Contracted Dates March 16 – March 27 DAY of EVENT is March 26 2020

VOLUNTEER - SignUp.com
Looking for an easy way to be involved at Baldwin?
Check out all the open sign ups with one easy link - <http://signup.com/go/v1hkhq>

Need more information on news & events at Baldwin? Check back frequently for updates on:
HASC website www.juliabaldwin.net

HASC Facebook page - Julia Baldwin Home and School Club