

NOFA Certified Organic Hudson Valley Farm Seeks experienced vegetable grower/farmer/production manager:

Liberty Farms is a 300+ acre NOFA Certified Organic Farm in the heart of Columbia County NY. We are just miles away from the up and coming hip town of Hudson, and within 110 miles of NYC. As a multi-faceted farm we are striving to create a destination for people to experience Sustainable Farming and good food, on a beautiful working farm. Liberty Farms is a diversified operation : A 5+ acre vegetable garden (with outlets locally, in our farm shop, and in NYC); A grass fed meat, egg, bee and hay operation; A State-of-the-Art Equestrian Center; a stunning Wedding and Events venue at 'The BARN'; and our newest partners Collective Retreats, that offer "glamping" (glamorous camping) on 10 of our 300 acres.

We are looking for an experienced, hardworking, upbeat individual to join our team as lead vegetable grower and production manager. Must have extensive knowledge and experience in organic vegetable growing, production and marketing, working as a team, and mentoring and leading seasonal apprentices/staff. Required: Reliable, team oriented individual who has the vision and drive to maintain our commitment to excellence and help expand and diversify our vegetable operation. 5 years or more organic vegetable farming experience. Competitive salary and perks.
