Mission for May - Methodist Children's Home Society - CORE VALUES

- 1. Celebrate the worth, diversity, and dignity of every youth and family. With courage and integrity, we embrace and celebrate the diversity and uniqueness of every individual, treating all families with love and respect.
- 2. Work collectively together and through partnerships to provide the best care possible. Through consummate teamwork and strategic partners in the community, we ensure our youth and families receive the best programs and services possible.
- 3. Give voice to our youth and families who do not have a voice. We advocate tirelessly on behalf of our youth and families in the public, private, and political sector to ensure their voices are heard.
- 4. Commit to results. Through research, data, and experiences, we use innovative practices to meet the increasingly diverse needs of the youth and families we serve.
- 5. Make a positive impact on our communities. By transforming the lives of our youth and their families, we strive to make our communities healthier, stronger, and better for future generations.

News from UMW

The Methodist Women ladies finally got in a meeting to fellowship and plan items to be working on. A gathering of nine bright and cheery ladies attended with our all kind of soup day. A birthday celebration was also a joy with a cream birthday pie. We celebrated Kaye Newton's and Nellie Lab's birthdays. Also, Peggy Golab, we welcomed as a new member. Praise God for her interest and helpfulness. She did the dishes at her first meeting. That is a quick way to being a servant. Thank you, Peggy!!!!!!!

We decided to look in advance to items and do some celebrations of the years' highlights. Monthly events were planned, and several women offered their time and talent. We need to check with our pastor with her schedule of the same dates.

Devotions were given by Marty Stinson and Carol Ray. A very inspiring, thoughtful and meaningful prayer from each woman was given with praise to our Lord for everyday blessings. A time for healing for Judy Rose. Hearing the progress of her condition, we all joined hands of God's touch in healing.

Next meeting will be May 17th at noon with bag lunch and dessert furnished. Our May hostesses will be Peggy Golab and Nellie Lab. Come join us in the afternoon.

Blessings to all, Margaret

Pastor's Office Hours

- ♦ Due to the fact that I have three churches it is best to make an appointment if you need to see me.
- ♦ In general I am in the office Tuesday through Friday. I may have to attend other functions at any given time. So, if you do drop by there may be a pending event that also requires my attention.
- ♦ You can also call to set up an appointment for times outside of office hours if needed.
- ♦ Monday is my day off, so outside of emergencies I will not be available.

And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:19
