

So, Now What?
May 2022 Sermon Series

Before you can figure out how to do something, you first have to determine what you need to accomplish. This month, JRCC will look deeper into what Jesus said was the most important God-commanded mission of the church. (And how close we are to doing just that...or not.)

May 1                      Blah Blah Blah                      Mark 12:28

A preacher overhears a commotion, only to find a debate going on. Jesus, while teaching what God thinks about how the church should be, has angered many of this preacher's colleagues. Watching the anger but seeing the thoughtful answers Jesus has been giving inspires perhaps the most important question ever asked of God.

May 8                      Relationships                      Mark 12:29-31

If you're new to JRCC, get ready to hear, "It's not about the rules; it's about relationships." (You get used to it.) But JRCC didn't invent that; Jesus did. And as he said those now-famous words, the Lord gave his church the only mission it would ever need.

May 15                      Patting Jesus on the Back                      Mark 12:32-33

Have you ever patted Jesus on the back? This guy did! Why would you ever feel the need to do that? And should churches start doing that?

May 22                      Mic Drop                      Mark 12:34

As he often does, Jesus gets the final word. What did he say that stopped all the naysayers from challenging him? And those words are the foundation of a church on mission.

May 29                      5th Sunday Celebration!

Worship outside! Located behind the paved parking lot, come join the Praise Team and Pastor Dave @ 11 AM for a worship experience outside of the building, followed immediately by a carry-in picnic. Bring a lawn chair or blanket, something to sip on, food to share, and sunscreen! If the weather is sketchy, we will move back into the building but at the same time.
