

Staff Engineer- Codes & Standards

Our client located in the south suburbs is looking for a Staff Engineer to join their team.

Offers a strong compensation and excellent benefits package.

Responsibilities include:

- Provide technical support for residential and building code development committees
- Review and develop accurate and concise code & standard language
- Participate in committee action and public comment hearings
- Ensure accuracy of published code and standard documents
- Assist and support the development of commentaries and other related publications
- Assist members with code and standard interpretations and related questions
- Perform plan reviews for code compliance
- Serve on internal and external committees
- Assist in educational content development and conduct seminars as an instructor

Requirements:

- 4+ years of experience as a Code Official, Building Inspector, Plan Reviewer, Architect or similar.
- Strong knowledge of codes and standards, IBC experience preferred
- Excellent writing, communication and customer service skills
- Ability to travel 10%

Contact Mike Babcock (mbabcock@partnershipemployment.com / 312-442-9030) for more details.