1. You may remember that I said I would have homilies about how the schools and parishes are doing generally and financially. I did give an update on the schools but have still not given an update on the parishes. There are two reasons for that. One is that I have been trying to make my homilies short- no more than two to three minutes- during the hot summer to help give you a reverent and efficient Mass. This is the same reasoning of why we recite the Gloria during the summer. Another reason for waiting to give an update on the parishes was to wait for some final figures to give you a more complete update. Therefore, I plan to give the update on the parishes during the month of September. Thanks, for your understanding and patience.
2. I am glad to let you know that our new Athletic Director is Chris Wozniak. Chris is a parishioner at St. Joseph parish and I am very pleased that he has stepped up to run our Panthers athletic program. Please give him your support and cooperation as he takes on this important role for our parishes. I would also like to thank our previous Athletic Directors Jim Glauer and Cody Gosser for the time they gave to leading our Panthers athletic program. In addition, a big thank you for all those who volunteer to coach our teams and those who show up to cheer for our teams. Your support is very much appreciated.
3. We have a Holy Day of Obligation Mass this week- The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven. We will have a Vigil Mass on Wednesday August 14 at Sacred Heart parish at 6:30 p.m. There will be a morning Mass on Thursday August 15 at 8:30 a.m. at St. Joseph parish. Here are some acceptable excuses for missing a Holy Day of Obligation: You have to go to your job and there is no way for you to get out of working without being fired. You have health issues and it is very difficult to for you to come to Mass. You are sick. You are in the hospital. You have to deal with an emergency. You are a caretaker and there is no one else that can take your place. You are dead. Here are some excuses that are not acceptable for missing a Holy Day of Obligation: You don't feel like coming. There is a sporting event you want to see. You want to go see a movie or watch Netflix. Your pet will be too sad without you. You get the picture what the Lord wants you to do.
4. It is hard to believe but both Sacred Heart and St. Joseph will begin school next week. Sacred Heart will begin on Tuesday August 20 and St. Joseph will begin on Thursday August 22. The summer always seems to go the fastest of all the seasons! Parents get your kids ready for another school year of faith, facts, and fellowship.

Thanks, and God Bless!!!

Fr. Chris
