A WARM WELCOME FOR ALL

Welcome to the Willette church of Christ, where you will find the Bible as our only rule for faith and practice. We seek to speak where the Bible speaks and to be silent where the Bible is silent. We want to call Bible things by Bible names and do Bible things in Bible ways.

Tidings from Timothy

The fortunes of men go up and go down. The times change and seem natural or strange (like now) according to the age in which you live and your perspective. The lives of men and women pass on as the world turns in about 70 or 80 years. THE thing that does not change is the ultimate will of God. That will of God determined that there would be an eternal kingdom come into existence and rule upon this earth. It's king is Jesus. It's government is determined by His New Covenant, and it will last through all generations until there are no more. This morning, we will compare this kingdom to the ones of this world and see just how great the Kingdom of God is.

We are a Bible centered, mission minded, and family oriented church. Thank you for coming, and please return at every opportunity.

Another argument for the discussion is the moral argument. The basic premise of the moral argument is the existence of objective right and wrong. Some would object to this argument by saying “I’m a moral person and I don’t believe in God. Are you saying that atheists can’t be moral?” (Common Objections). Of course, the answer to this argument would be no. Just because someone proclaims to be an atheist does not mean the person is immoral. However, that does not excuse the fact that a higher law exists. There is a conscience within each of us that cannot excuse heinous acts, such as the atrocities committed by the Nazis in World War II. If value is only a function of the human mind, then the Nazis were absolutely justified in what horrible acts they committed by legalized genocide. Even Flew in his debate with Warren could not address this argument with any solidarity whatsoever. When it came up, it seemed as though Flew just shrugged off the argument and went to another subject matter. Warren stated it very clearly in his debate that “some men who are given questions in such a discussion do not answer them because they do not know how to answer” (Warren 74).

It is when men are confronted with an irrefutable truth that they tend to address questions as this in similar fashion. The basic standard of morality dictates to us that there is objectivity in right and wrong. The Bible is replete with instances of objective, moral right and wrong. For example, consider the list given at Proverbs 6. Here, there are things which the Lord absolutely despises. Notice that these lists are not merely based upon feelings, which are subjective. It is upon an objective standard which these items are based. Let us dwell upon these matters with regard to morality and ask ourselves, “Does my morality coincide with what God has said?”

Those attending: Note that if you have symptoms of the virus you need to please leave to get that checked out. Everyone is welcome at church, but the wisdom of testing for pathogens when symptoms show and quarantine until the results are known is clearly taught in Leviticus 13-17. (Tim) The media is confusing so I stress that those symptoms are: 1) fever 2) dry cough 3) loss of sensate function (taste, smell). Also, any other thing you think means you got it means you ought to be getting checked out (it’s free if you are willing to travel).

Wednesday night: Sorry about the last Wednesday night glitch. It was out of our control and we will let you know when Jonny Royal will be presenting that lesson. This Wednesday will be with Dale Sadler.

Tonight: The Bible story: Noah – a preacher of righteousness. 6pm

To My Child: Things I can and cannot do (author unknwn)

- I can share your life, but I cannot live it for you.
- I can teach you things, but I cannot make you learn.
- I can give you directions, but I cannot always lead you.
- I can take you to church, but I cannot make you believe.
- I can teach you right from wrong, but I cannot decide for you..
- I can give you love, but I cannot force it upon you.
- I can teach you to be a friend, but I cannot make you one.
- I can teach you to share, but I cannot make you unselfish.
- I can teach you respect, but I cannot force you to show honor.
- I can tell you the facts of life, but I cannot build your reputation.
- I can tell you about lofty goals, but I cannot achieve them for you.
- I can teach you to obey, but I cannot answer for your actions.
- I can warn you about sins, but I cannot make your morals.
- I can love you as my child, but I cannot place you in God’s family.
- I can pray for you, but I cannot make you walk with God.
- I can teach you about Jesus, but I cannot make him your Savior.
- I can teach you about prayer, but I cannot make you pray.
- I can tell you how to live, but I cannot give you Eternal life.

Perhaps these things will give us a greater appreciation of Proverbs 22:16.
