

2018-2019 Committees of the
Lexington (KY) Alumnae Chapter

Committee	Description	Chair	Co-Chair(s)
Arts and Letters	The Arts and Letters Committee was established in 1973 by National President Lillian Benbow, the ultimate goal of the National Commission of Arts and Letters has been to boldly advance the Black Experience through arts and letters and to ferret out the contributions of African American people of the past and lift them to public attention. We actively seek to recognize our native thespians, artist, writers, etc. within the Lexington area and the state.	Jannifer Epps	~vacant
Audit Committee	The Audit Committee reviews and proposes internal controls. The committee also reviews chapter financial records.	Tava Clay	Sharon Stevens
Budget/Finance	The Budget and Finance Committee develops a budget based on the financial needs and programs of the Chapter.	Georgetta Richardson	~vacant
Custodian of Properties	The custodian of properties is responsible for managing equipment and supplies.	Rosie N. Harless	~vacant
Courtesy	The Courtesy Committee recognizes and responds to the members on occasions that merit courtesies.	Hallie Evans	~vacant
Collegiate Connection	The Collegiate Transition Taskforce committee is a program to foster the cross over from a collegiate chapter to an alumnae chapter, bringing forth a smooth transition.	Darlene Barber	Mary Hodge
Debutante Ball	The Debutante Ball is a cotillion hosted by the Lexington (KY) Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, where young women are introduced into society by their parents or guardians. The Debutante season is a five-month program focused on encouraging higher education and fostering finer womanhood through instruction in charm, etiquette and social awareness. The program also provides participants with the opportunity to earn scholarships for postsecondary education. It is the desire of the Sorority that participants will become positive role models and strong leaders in their collegiate communities and continue to display the grace, elegance and decorum they learned during the Debutante program.	~vacant	~vacant
Delta Academy	Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. formed the Delta Academy in order to expose eleven through fourteen year old girls to enrichment opportunities in the areas of math, science, computer education and non-traditional careers. Young ladies are selected for this program who might not otherwise be afforded this opportunity. The program's tenets are scholarship, exemplified through exposure to the areas listed above; sisterhood through developing friendships with other participants including those persons leading the program; and service, through a variety of community activities. This program allows the members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, to impact the future while not forgetting from whence we came. With the sorors' involvement, we can ensure that the future of these girls will be even brighter.	Alecia Russell	Brittany Barber
Delta DEARS	Delta D.E.A.R.S. are members of Delta Sigma Theta's sisterhood who have been blessed to reach the golden age of 62 years. Dedicated to upholding the ideals and traditions of their sorority, Delta D.E.A.R.S. set a standard of excellence in service, scholarship, and sisterhood	Tava Clay	Delores Townsend
Domestic Violence	This committee is geared towards making the community aware of resources available for domestic violence.	Bonnie Mitchell-Clark	Shonda James

2018-2019 Committees of the
Lexington (KY) Alumnae Chapter

Emergency Response	The mission of the DELTA Emergency Response Team (ERT) is to increase awareness about emergency preparedness activities, provide structured and systematic training for the membership's readiness, response, and recovery efforts, provide effective and immediate communication strategies to facilitate and aid in preparedness and response, provide steps for early response and efficient recovery, provide resource support and guidance for sorority members and the communities impacted by natural or man-made disasters. For more information, visit our national site, http://www.deltasigmatheta.org/ert/ert_home.asp	Diane Arnold	~vacant
Fund Raising	The Fundraising committee implements activities designed to raise money for various projects throughout the Sorority. Our efforts to raise money for our community service programs are based on our Five Point Programmatic Thrust: Economic Development, Educational Development, International Awareness and Involvement, Physical and Mental Health, and Political Awareness and Involvement.	Uneeda Bryant	~vacant
Healthy Living	This committee informs chapter members about upcoming healthy living projects and programs that the chapter will participate in or organize.	Bonnie Mitchell-Clark	Shonda James
Historian	Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is an organization full of rich history. The committee is responsible for documenting all events through photography and recording significant events in the history of the Lexington (KY) Alumnae Chapter.	Dominique Wright	~vacant
Journalist	The journalist collects, writes, and distributes news articles to local news sources and to the national and regional publications of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.	Brittany Holloway	~vacant
LEAD	The Midwest Leadership Fellows program is a special training program targeting current chapter members and exposes aspiring leaders to leadership skills beyond the basics.	LaRellen Jones	Krista Williams
Newsletter and Technology	The Newsletter and Technology Committee is responsible for our local Facebook Page and designing and maintaining the chapter's web site.	Dominique Wright	~vacant
Policies and Procedures	Lexington (KY) Alumnae chapter is governed by its policies and procedures. This committee is responsible for the upkeep of this document.	~vacant	~vacant
Program Planning and Development	The Program Planning and Development Committee reviews our programs and guides our chapter in making our programs effective in the community.	Vicki K. Crump	~vacant
Project SEE	The Science and Everyday Experiences (SEE) project, is a long-range workforce initiative designed to encourage African American students to pursue careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) courses. One major objective of SEE is to emphasize that science is all around us as a part of our everyday experiences. Moreover, SEE concentrates on showing African American youth and their families that science does not have to be difficult; it can be a lot of fun. Exposing youth to many career choices is another goal.	TaQuoya Shegog	Uneeda Bryant
Reclamation and Retention	The Reclamation and Retention committee implements activities designed to build the spirit of sisterhood among members and to encourage all members to honor their lifetime commitment to service.	Rachel Russey	Shonta Phelps
Ritual and Ceremonies	The responsibility of the Ritual and Ceremonies Committee is to advise and educate the chapter on the staging and execution of the sorority's ritual and ceremonies and to assist with maintenance of chapter properties.	Judith Cunningham	Stefania Greene

2018-2019 Committees of the
Lexington (KY) Alumnae Chapter

Risk Management	Risk Management coordinator(s) will provide the rationale for Risk Management in Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, present an overview of The Risk Management Manual, answer questions regarding the implementation of risk management policies and procedures, and introduce requirements for chapter trainings during the regional conference cycle.	Clementine Holloway	~vacant
Service Projects	The Service Projects Committee initiates, facilitates, and participates in activities and projects to help make life better for the people in the community. A few of our projects are adopt a Christmas family, Salvation Army angel tree, Mountain of love sorting, and conducting educational sessions with the women in the Federal Medical Center.	Ashlee-Nicole Crump-Hamilton	Nicole Seals
Social Action	The Social Action committee implements activities designed to build the spirit of sisterhood among members and to encourage all members to honor their lifetime commitment to service.	Chrysanthia Carr-Seals	~vacant