A Note from Rick: We had a busy week at TLA! Tuesday's sale was steady for the most part. Bull calves and slaughter cows were both a little stronger. Both of these markets were slightly weaker last week so it was nice to gain back what we lost. The hay market continues to grow in volume and prices remain strong as we come into the heart of the season for the hay market. Thursday's springer sale wasn't quite able to hold the very strong prices we had in November. We had a very nice group of heifers to offer but prices were definitely a little softer. There continues to be a lot of uncertainty in the dairy industry and that's definitely putting a lid on dairy cattle prices for the time being. We had our Dutch Cross Classic Christmas sale on Friday & Saturday and it went off with a bang! This sale just keeps continuing to grow and it's great to see all the hard work that our committee members have put in paying off. We're looking forward to a big week this week as well. Starting with our Special Feeder sale on Tuesday followed by the Standardbred Trotting Breeder's Edition sale on Friday & Saturday. Hope to see you at TLA!
