

Maxie H Furlong

232

Maxie H. Furlong, 57, of Oil City, entered into rest on January 1, 2000, following a long illness.

Mr. Furlong had been a resident of Oil City for all of his life and was a retired oil field worker. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Oil City and served in the United States Marine Corps.

Graveside services were held on Wednesday, January 5, at Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Oil City. Rev. Frank Carroll officiated at the service.

Mr. Furlong is survived by his wife, Marilyn G. Furlong of Oil City; and his mother-in-law, June Grinage of Oil City.
