terms and conditions

1 Market Harmony LLC is required by The Patriot Act and PA Code 501 to collect the above personal information when dealing with individuals. Any information collected is maintained only in our files and will not be shared with 3rd parties for any reason. Information will only be submitted to government agencies if the information is requested by them, or as required by them.

2 The client is responsible for all shipping and insurance costs for items being mailed to and from Market Harmony LLC's shipping address

3 Market Harmony LLC cannot be held liable for items that are damaged, lost, or delayed by courier services.

4 Shipping costs for returned items will be reduced from the total amount payable to seller. In the case of 100% rejected items, client must send payment for shipping charges prior to the items being returned.

5 Market Harmony LLC reserves all rights to inspect, damage, sample, analyze, reject, or destroy any item that is received.

6 Acceptance of client's shipment from courier services does not imply acceptance of items said to be contained within the shipment.

7 By sending items to Market Harmony, the client represents full legal claim to the items, and that the client is 18 years of age or older.
