To the Distinguished, Gifted, Brilliant and Intelligent, Extraordinary, Amazing, Dedicated and Committed Members of the Board of Bishops of the PAW, as well as Constituents and Friends of the Christian Community:

I want to express my deep appreciation for your support, prayers, and well wishes during our family's loss in the death of my precious Mother, Hazel Marie Cosper. As promised, I am following my recent correspondence with new developments on her disposition: she departed this life at 1:38 am today.

The outpouring of support, condolences and prayers have been overwhelming, and I and my family members are most unworthy of such a monumental display of love. The following is the outline of the arrangements for the memorial of Hazel M. Cosper:

Family Hour

Friday, December 29, 2017

3:00 – 7:00 pm

Greater Bible Way Temple

322 Madison Street

Jackson MI 49202

Homegoing Celebration

Saturday, December 30, 2017

11:00 am – 3:00 pm

Greater Bible Way Temple

322 Madison Street

Jackson, MI 49202

Phone: (517) 784-2079

Funeral arrangements are being handled by the renown Ellis Funeral Home; the distinguished David Ellis, Jr., Mortician. Eulogist will be the Honorable Bishop Charles H. Ellis, III - 10th Presiding Bishop of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. Officiant to be determined.

Please send all donations and condolences to the Greater Bible Way Temple, 322 Madison Street, Jackson MI 49202 or to the church parsonage, 4580 Eagle Drive, Jackson MI 49201. Monetary checks should be made out to the Northern District Council Foreign Missions Department. All monetary contributions will be used to support foreign mission initiatives to preach the Gospel in honor of the name, Hazel M. Cosper.

God Bless You/God Love You,

Bishop Ira Combs, Jr.
