Tailored Collar Jacket Class- 20 hours -$300

Class Requirements: Intermediate or advanced garment sewing skills. Moderate to heavy homework, depending on pattern.

Class includes muslin, and reusable corrected jacket pattern that FITS.

Jacket Pattern Requirements: Drafted from Moulage, or commercial. Any type of collar. Can combine more than one pattern, or bring a small selection (no more than 3) and Barbie will help you select the one most flattering to your figure. Any type of pockets. Please note that the more pattern pieces there are, the longer it will take to complete the jacket, resulting in additional homework.

Class Description: Each student will first assemble the main jacket pieces in muslin. The muslin is fit by Barbie. From this corrected pattern, the jacket is marked and cut. Jacket construction includes quality fusible interfacing, facings where appropriate, properly adjusted collar pieces, taped roll lines, shoulder pads, sleeve heads, machine or bound buttonholes, pockets, and lining. Proper pressing is demonstrated. Everyone will make a sample bound buttonhole and sample welt pocket. Construction is supervised by Barbie and different sewing/ construction techniques are discussed.
