Make it a Memorable Occasion!

Welcome to our catalog of carnival games, concession equipment and banquet supplies from Party H.Q.. We hope you find this catalog both interesting, exciting, and something that stimulates creativity for YOUR event.

The games contained inside are either, original games purchased from 'carnies' or handmade creations, many based off early 1920-1950's games. The games have been tested, are great fun for kids or adults, and are flexible enough to be used in either a fund-raising capacity, or as just a FUN-raising time.

We trust that the children who use these games will, as we have already seen, be transported back in time to a former age, where not every game has to be a video one, and that simple pleasures really are the best.

When selecting games for your event choose a balance between games of skill and games of chance. We will help you select games to ensure a successful event.

We do our best to keep your costs reasonable but be advised that prices are subject to change without notice.

Our home based business is growing continually so do not hesitate to ask for something you need that is not in the catalog. If we don't have it we will get it or help you find a source for all of your event needs.

Warm Regards,
Debbie and Ted Wood,

Games of skill require just that, skill to win. How much skill you “win” is up to you. All of the games provide plenty of flexibility to meet the goals of your event. Playing these games successfully gives participants a great sense of accomplishment, participants will also find these games a challenge and thus will want to play them again and again to improve on their last attempt.

Chuck-A-Duck

Chuck-A-Duck is one of our more popular games. It is a bean bag toss game with the bean bags being green cartoon type ducks to throw at the target holes. The difficulty comes in the varying sizes and point scores for the different shapes of holes. The game measures 48” x 48” in size, and has a footprint of approximately 36” x 48”.

Comes with board and three ducks. Floor game.

That is the prize they win. This game offers a lot of flexibility of play Floor game.

Game #1016 A class game of skill

Ring-A-Ling

Another traditional favorite, Ring-A-Ling is a ring toss game with a twist. Pegs are targets for the 8” foam rings that players throw for points. The foam rings give bounce to the game, making the ring ‘stick’ a challenge, even for adults. For those who desire an even *greater* challenge, a solitary peg extends out the top of the board for a bonus ring.

The board itself is 48” x 60”, and has a footprint of approximately 48” x 72”. Floor game.

Game #1008 A class game of skill

The Challenger

Also known as “Skin the Wire” The Challenger is a coin-operated game (dimes) with an easy access back panel to reuse the dimes. Players slide the hoop along the wire without touching it as far as possible. The wire will forgive an occasional brush, but it is very hard to get far without setting off the red light and audible alarm. Not for little children, but those who think they’re a “Cool Hand Luke” are welcome to try! Table Game.

Game #1019 B class game of skill

Poppa-Prize

Poppa—Prize is a 4 foot by 8 foot mounted styrofoam target board for kids to send balloons into balloon heaven. Two sets of three darts each are provided. Balloons are attached by clips to long screws sticking out of the styrofoam. The doors on the game unfold and are left open to allow protection for walls behind, and support for the game itself. Game is 8 feet long, 4 feet high, and each door is 4 feet long. Floor game.

Shoot-A-Hoot

What’s a carnival without a good old fashioned target game? Shoot-a-Hoot gives children three chances to knock down three extremely tippy hoots (owls) with Nurf darts. Effective range on these weapons are about 6-12 feet (excellent table-top game A solid performer. Table game.

Ping Pong Plunk

Ping Pong Plunk: A classic game of skill that requires the player to land the ping pong ball on the glass cup. Not so hard, maybe, but the cups are resting in rings floating in a pool of water.

Cooperative Games

Cooperative games are just for fun. They are great for company picnics, family reunions, weddings and other gatherings where fun together is the focus above winning a prize. This area is under development this year. Ask us what is available.

Games of Chance

Games of chance allow you to control how often the participants win. You decide the ratio of large and small prizes, striking a balance between keeping the participants interested and meeting your fund or fun raising event goals.

Fishin' Hole

Fishin' Hole is a standard seen at carnivals everywhere. Two fishing rods are provided with extra long-line. At the end of each line is strong clamp, that can be used to catch boots, seaweed, or prizes! The wood and blue fabric free-standing barrier is 8' by 8', by 5' in height. Plenty of room for two people to sit behind. Easy for anyone to play, and a particular favorite with younger kids, this game is always a hit.

Game #1011 A class game of chance

Henny Penny

Henny Penny—a fun game for the youngest in the crowd! Youngsters reach in through the holes under Henny to pick a plastic egg—each one containing a prize. They then crack the egg into a small frying pan to see what they've won. Simple, but very fun for the children!

Game # 1020 A class game of chance

Party H.Q. (780) 539-0888

SteepleChase

The spirit of competition is alive and well in the game of Steeplechase! Up to six children can play at once as they roll large dice to try to reach the finish line with their wooden horse, first. The horses are mounted onto a large wooden board, and moved as each child rolls their die and race to the finish line. The first child whose rolls total more than 25 wins, and other children receive prizes based on where their horse finished.

Gold Mine

Another game for smaller kids, Gold Mine is the classic 'search for gold' game. Each child gets a set amount of rice or wheat and the child digs through the sand to find either a small gold rock, a large one, or perhaps nothing at all—depending on how you set up your games. Gold rocks, wheat/rice, sifting tools, and a rice/wheat containment are all provided. Floor game.

Open Season! combines the thrill of the old-time fishing pond with the excitement of having to choose an appropriate target! An extremely popular game with younger children, they use “fishing rods” to catch ducks as they float in a ‘pond’. Ducks are captured using a magnet on the fishing line that has to be brought up underneath washers attached to the bottom of the ducks. Various coloured washers indicate the level of prize won by the child. Comes with pool, ducks, washers, and fishing rods. (Ducking rods?)

A simple but popular game is the Sucker Tree. This game is popular with young and old alike. Preparation includes about 280 suckers which all have a color marked on the bottom. Depending on which sucker (and color) is chosen, the children may win an additional prize. This game is great to use at a large event for fund raising.
