

EMMA M. WEIDMAN

1906-1979

Emma M. Weidman, age 73 of Pigeon, passed away Friday, November 9 at St. Mary's Hospital, Saginaw. She was born August 26, 1906 in Oliver Township. On November 12, 1924, she was united in marriage to Wesley Weidman in Bad Axe.

Mrs. Weidman is survived by her husband, Wesley; one son, Alvin E. Weidman of Ann Arbor; five daughters, Mrs. Lloyd (Viola) Borkholder of Saginaw, Mrs. Elmer (Eileen) Herman of Elkton, Mrs. Harold (El Donna) Parsell of Kingston, Mrs. Lloyd (Ruth) Wolfe of Owendale and Mrs. Carl (Betty) Parsell of Pigeon; 24 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Lydia Schember of Elkton and Mrs. Martha Hewitt of Elkton, and three brothers, Andrew Staehli of Cleveland, Ohio, Walter Staehli of Lorain, Ohio and John Staehli of Willowick, Ohio. An infant daughter and two sisters preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held Monday, November 12 at 1 p.m. from Shetler-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon. The Rev. Ralph Pieper of Salem United Methodist Church will officiate, with burial in Caseville Cemetery.