Facts Each Must Face

by Jim R. Lewis

Life Is Short: “Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down” (Job 14:1–2). “What is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away” (James 4:14).

Death Is Certain: “It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment” (Hebrews 9:27). The strength of man’s mind and the wealth of the world have been spent from earliest times to find a way to escape the fate of death. Still, all die.

Eternity Is Long: “And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal” (Matthew 25:46).

Judgment Is Sure: “And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works” (Revelation 20:12). “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body” (2 Corinthians 5:10).

There Is Only One Way to Be Saved: Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me” (John 14:6). This salvation is available to all alike only through obedience to His gospel. The conditions in obeying the gospel are (1) Believe on Jesus (Acts 16:31; John 8:24; Acts 8:36–37); (2) Repent (Acts 2:38; 17:30; Luke 13:3, 5); (3) Confess Christ (Matthew 10:32–33; Acts 8:36–38; Romans 10:10); and (4) Be baptized (immersed) for remission of sins (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; 22:16); (5) Live faithfully unto Death (Revelation 2:10; Matthew 10:22; James 1:12).

You Asked For It by: Glen Elliot Greenbrier church of Christ Greenbrier, Arkansas

The story is told of a lady who had a very willful and spoiled child. One day when a wasp flew in the window, the youngster began crying for it because it looked so pretty with its brilliant colors. Finally, the mother called the one who was caring for the child from another room, asking, "What in the world is that child crying for? Will you please give it to him!" It wasn't long before she heard a loud scream. "What is the matter now?" shouted the mother. "He got what he wanted," was the calm reply.

Quite often the things we think will bring us happiness and joy bring only heartache and pain. This is why we must not spend our time longing for things we do not possess as though the mere possession of those things will bring us happiness. Instead, we need to be thankful and content for the things we have been given so that, when we are blessed with more, we will glorify God. Jesus often warns us about the trap of materialism. He writes, "Beware, and be on your guard against every form of greed; for not even when one has an abundance does his life consist of his possessions" (Lk. 12:15). Far too often, in our society, a man is measured by what he owns. But this is a false and foolish standard for it neither measures a man's true worth nor his eternal destiny. Jesus taught us to seek for treasures in heaven by fixing our hearts on those things which are spiritual and eternal. He said, "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal; for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Matthew 6:19-21). Likewise, the apostle Paul wrote: "Therefore if you have been raised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth. For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory" (Col. 3:1-4). This is the only way to ensure happiness when we finally receive that for which we have been longing. In the end, what will it matter if we gain the whole world but lose our soul? (Matt. 16:26).
