

Welcome Guests

Welcome to First Baptist Church of Cameron!

We consider it a privilege to have you with us today! The most important and highest activity that a company of God's people could ever engage in is to offer Almighty God acceptable worship" (D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones, Welsh Protestant Minister).

While you have chosen to attend this "worship service", the act of worship is not guaranteed. It is a choice of the will to focus on, revere, and adore the One who alone is worthy of our praise. May you enter His gates this morning with thanksgiving. (Psalm 100:4) May we worship Him this day in the Truth as revealed to us by His Holy Spirit (John 4:23). May we leave this place with a renewed desire to give Him glory and honor through the way we live each and every day (Romans 12:1). It is our prayer that as you spend time with us this morning that you will have a fresh encounter with the living God.

Please return a completed blue visitor's card to the welcome booth as you leave today's service to receive a gift from FBC.

Trust in the LORD

Trust is easy until you have to prove it.

Charles Swindoll gives an illustration to help understand adversity. In the northeastern United States codfish are a big commercial business. Note the following facts: There is a market for eastern cod all over, especially in sections farthest removed from the northeast coastline. But the public demand posed a problem to the shippers. At first they froze the cod, then shipped them elsewhere, but the freeze took away much of the flavor.

So they experimented with shipping them alive, in tanks of seawater, but that proved even worse. Not only was it more expensive, the cod still lost its flavor and, in addition, became soft and mushy. The texture was seriously affected.

Finally, some creative person solved the problem in a most innovative manner. The codfish were placed in the tank of water along with their natural enemy—the catfish. From the time the cod left the East Coast until it arrived at its westernmost destination, those ornery catfish chased the cod all over the tank. And, you guessed it, when the cod arrived at the market, they were as fresh as when they were first caught. There was no loss of flavor nor was the texture affected. If anything, it was better than before.

Each one of us is in a tank of particular and inescapable circumstances. It is painful enough to stay in the tank. But in addition to our situation, there are God-appointed “catfish” to bring sufficient tension that keeps us alive, alert, fresh and growing. It’s all part of God’s project to shape our character so we will be more like His Son. Understand why the catfish are in your tank. Understand they are part of God’s method of producing character in your life and mine.

We need to trust the Lord, no matter what, even when you do not fully understand why there is trials and adversity in your life. Proverbs 3:5-6 says: Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

Church—let’s continue to become devoted followers of Jesus Christ!
