Blocks will change as my students change. There is some overlap because I am getting students in the morning as well as later in the morning before lunch.

Steve Carlile is only with me on Monday and Friday.

Romello Lolakis is only with me for periods 1-3 (no electronic devices)

Josh Velasquez is with me from 10:15-2:08 (no electronic devices)

Ethan Black is with me from 7:50-2:08 but on Thursday and Friday, he leaves after lunch and gets extra help upstairs.

Jacob Freeze is with me from 7:50-2:08 but he spends the morning with Mary Williams in his online classes and then comes down to my lab after lunch. His attendance is very bad. (We have all been working on it.)

Noah Popson is with me all day until period 9. Period 9 he goes to Mrs. Francis for math.

This week students who owe schoolwork to me or any other subject they are enrolled in will be catching that work up.
