

Join the Chester Land Trust Celebration!

Celebrate the Dedication of the Judge Motley Preserve and Former Home as a Heritage Site on the Connecticut Freedom Trail

Sunday, October 6, 2019, 2 pm
99 Cedar Lake Road, Chester, CT

◆ Formal Dedication by Freedom Trail Officials ◆ Reception ◆ House Tour

Sponsored by the Chester Land Trust
Free Parking, Open to the Public

Constance Baker Motley's pioneering work in helping to pave the long and arduous path for freedom, equality and justice, is distinguished and remarkable, and for which the people of Connecticut are grateful. Inclusion of the Motley preserve and house onto the Connecticut Freedom Trail will become a symbol of her work and a beacon for others who wish to emulate her passion for human dignity. This designation will serve to encourage the protection and recognition of these important historic resources.

--Todd Levine, Connecticut Freedom Trail
State Historic Preservation Office

Learn About Judge Motley at The Chester Land Trust More Info: Marta Daniels, 860-343-3191