Mike Glieden

Inducted in 2003

Mike Glieden – During his school -years in Arlington, Minnesota, Mike Glieden learned to play horns in the school band, and he sang in chorus, quartets, and trios. In 1957 he was introduced to guitar and became hooked for life. This led to the birth of the famous Rhythm Kings, an award winning Rock N Roll band which plays ballrooms, back-up to national recording stars, radio and TV shows, tours and records albums
