

*It's about family fun
on the most famous road
in America - Route 66*

Saturday,
May 5, 2018
from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sponsored by the 13 communities which make up the 90-mile linear museum from Joliet to Towanda, the annual festival invites everyone to experience the good life in the slow lane.

Each community will produce its own events. From full-blown festivals to antique and craft sales, art sales, car
and motorcycle shows, and live entertainment, everyone is sure to discover something unique.

Food, snacks and treats will be in abundance, and there are plenty of historic sites, outstanding free museums and unique mom and pop businesses to help create a nostalgic journey for all to enjoy. Visitors can simple enjoy the drive, or stop and get out of the car to have their picture taken with Elvis, or do a little shopping in any of the great stores along the Mother Road.

Wilmington
You're invited back!
Water Street Market - 9 am-3 pm
1st Saturday April-November
• Fish our scenic island parks
• Shop antiques downtown
• Dine our restaurants
• See bison at Midwestern National Tallgrass Prairie

On May 5th, Route 66 Raceway will give fans a variety of opportunities to check out the first true stadium of drag racing. Fans will have the opportunity to take photos at the facility, tour the facility or for those who want to take a pass down the drag strip, register for the Race Your Ride event and be a part of history. More information can be found at www.route66raceway.com.

Drive through the awe-inspiring Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery just South of Elwood. Look for the bronze statue of our 16th President.

Welcome Midwestern National Tallgrass Prairie's Welcome Center and Iron Bridge Trailhead for a special button, natural resources expo and explore the prairie. Watch for bison!

A side trip worth making is to the Braidwood Area Historical Society Museum, 111 N. Center St. This historic train depot was moved from Rt. 66.

See the 100-year-old horse-drawn streetcar that once served as a diner in the 1930s. Located next to historic two-cell jail in Gardner.

A can't miss stop is the Texaco Welcome Center in Dwight.

In Odell, see the preserved Standard Oil Gas Station listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Chenoa: Home of the Historic Matthew T. Scott House on the National Register of Historic Places. Located at 227 N. 1st Ave., it was built in 1855.

It's called Memory Lane, a section of the original Route 66 roadway, located in Lexington. The town was a popular stop for travelers between Chicago and St. Louis.

Tour the historic Duncan Manor on Route 66 south of Towanda. Built in the 1880s, it is being restored. Also stop at Kicks on 66 Bar & Grill.

Pontiac has three unique swinging bridges for pedestrians to cross the Vermilion River.

Ever see a ghost mural? Drive Mitchell St. and you'll find one near the Braceville School.

You'll dig the mining museum in Godley.
