From the Pastor's Office...

This past Sunday at the Cathedral of Christ the King, four men were ordained to the Permanent Diaconate. Just to be present for the ordinations is a blessing. The graces given to all is immeasurable. If these graces are immeasurable for us who were not ordained, imagine how those four men felt as they were led by the Holy Spirit through the sacrament of Holy Orders.

I would like to congratulate Deacon Dan Kohler. He is the newest Permanent Deacon to be serving at St. Mary's Immaculate Conception Church in Hammond, WI. This coming Saturday and Sunday (8/20-21) will be his first time preaching and serving as a Deacon. I especially want to thank Sara for sharing her husband and their young adult children, Andrew and Alex for sharing your Dad with the Church. It is such a beautiful sacrifice and gift to all of us.

After both Saturday night and Sunday morning Mass, there will be a reception for Deacon Dan in the church basement. Please come and join us for the reception. All are invited. It will also be great time to congratulate Deacon Dan personally.

Deacon Dan thank you for making the journey, for growing closer to God, and for saying "yes" to God's call to become a Permanent Deacon. May God continue the good work he is beginning in you as our next Deacon.

Congratulations,
Fr. Joe Stefancin
Parochial Administrator
