“Massachusetts in the Woman Suffrage Movement”

Sunday, March 29 at 1:00pm
Ames Mansion

Author Barbara Berenson will talk about her book, “Massachusetts in the Woman Suffrage Movement” highlighting notable Massachusetts suffrage leaders. Barbara will present this history and images of the struggles woman faced while fighting for equality; the right to vote. Step back in time with Barbara during this presentation as we learn more about the suffrage movement. Presentation will last approximately 45 minutes, followed by a Q & A.

This is a part of the Friends of Borderland’s Annual Meeting and is free to the public and members. Donations are accepted. Seating is limited, first-come, first-seated. Doors open at approximately 12:45pm. Please park in front of the Ames Mansion. Enter at 257 Massapoag Avenue, North Easton, MA. In case of snow or inclement weather, parking may change to the main parking lot.

This event is co-sponsored by the Department of Conservation and Recreation and the Friends of Borderland, a non-profit organization. In 2020, Borderland is celebrating the centennial of women’s suffrage through a lecture series, highlighting remarkable women in American history, along with other programs and events throughout 2020. For more information, please visit www.friendsofborderland.org. Lecture series is rain or shine, all children must be accompanied by an adult. For reasonable accommodations, please call Borderland at (508) 238-6566.
