Every year, pet owners who cannot afford medical care for their pets are forced to make incredibly difficult decisions. Depending upon their pet's condition, the cost of medical care can range from a few hundred to several thousand dollars. Zoey's Fun Run is a community event to raise money for Zoey's Fund; a special fund in partnership with the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association. The fund provides financial assistance for York County residents unable to afford the cost of their pets' emergency veterinary care. Keeping families and their pets together longer
