

Judgment Day by Jerry C. Brewer Elk City, OK
via The Beacon Bellview church of Christ Pensacola, FL

A Day of Judgment for all mankind is appointed by God (Acts 17:30-31). Contrary to popular belief, it will not be a day of “trial,” but a day of judgment assessed by Jesus Christ. Those who have been obedient to His will shall inherit life everlasting and those who have shunned His will shall inherit “everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels” (Mat. 25:34, 41). The “trial” of men is in this life.

Men may go through life with little thought of God or His will expressed in the New Testament. They may heed the doctrines of men expounded by the denominational industry. They may go through life foolishly insisting, “There is no God” (Psa. 14:1). They may go through life seeking to amass material things, as the rich fool of Luke 12:20 did. Or men may go through life learning of God’s will in the New Testament and obeying it. But for all these things, God shall call us to account (Rom. 14:10-12; 2 Cor. 5:10). No pleas will be allowed at The Judgment.

Our plea is being made here and now:
Do not wait until judgment to plead your case. Make your calling and election sure by obeying the Gospel now in faith, repentance, confession, and baptism (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; 8:37).

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

Mission Update

Ukraine Relief: March 20 was a day chosen to give the congregation an opportunity to help with Ukraine relief. Along with what the congregation gave, money was also sent from church funds for a grand total of $5,336 which was sent to Dalraida church of Christ in Montgomery, AL. The Dalraida congregation has been doing mission work in the Ukraine since 1994. John Kachelman, Jr. has been a missionary in the Ukraine for 28 years working with the Dalraida congregation.
