Pastor's Corner

Part of me is surprised that summer's end is on the horizon. August brings an inevitable feeling for me: "There was more I wanted to enjoy this summer, AND there is more to prepare for in September!" A tug between longing in the now and preparedness for the immediate future. Both are good. Our two boards (Session & Deacons) will be joining for our annual ("big picture") meeting on the 8th, so please be praying for that time, that we are open to the Spirit and to each other, and that we have the wisdom to discern where God wants to take us, the courage to follow, and the vision to lead the rest of the congregation – please be praying for all the members of Puckety's family to that end as well. One special way to 'put legs' on such prayer is to come to the mini-Ministry Fair (during the coffee hour on Sun. Aug. 13th at Faith Hall after worship). We can't encourage you strongly enough to take advantage of that time – not just to understand the various ministries of Puckety, but to explore the ways you could fit in!

Each one of us should be asking ourselves (on a monthly basis) how am I helping to live out the mission Christ has given Puckety to: honor God, grow in faith, and improve our community and world. It's one thing to say it or memorize it, but how, specifically, have you determined to be God's heart, voice and hands, making a lasting difference in the lives of others around us. My memories of Israel are already starting to slowly fade in their sharpness – thank the Lord for pictures and journaling. Let me try to shine one up a bit by sharing it with you. At the end of the newsletter you'll find a devotion referencing the loving Fatherhood of God toward us. Well, that wonderful quality of God was made poignantly clear when we visited the Pater Noster Church on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem – built to commemorate the time Jesus taught his disciples in answer to their request, "Teach us to pray." To which he gave them what we call the Lord's Prayer, beginning with the words "Our Father" which, in Aramaic, is Pater Noster.

At the church, nearly everywhere you look, you will find a version of the prayer in a different language – along the walls, cloisters, hallways, arches and ceilings, all used to display plaques in 140 different languages and dialects. But the primary place is given to the version in the language it was originally given – Aramaic. This makes sense since that's how Jesus first delivered it, but there's another reason. Many Christians are encouraged by the closeness conveyed by the beginning of the prayer, "Our Father." But Jesus' disciples would have been surprised at the very start ... not just because of the nearness implied by the words, but because of the language he used - he was giving it in Aramaic (the common tongue of the Jews at the time), instead of the more formal Hebrew, in which all the "proper" prayers to God were given as instructed by the rabbis. Why is this important? Jesus was communicating the "translatability" of God's love and purpose. Long before there were different translations of the Scriptures, Jesus (the divine Word of God translated into human flesh) was revealing powerfully how what God was doing is for all ... and how his word is translatable into all languages, in order to reach all people. Jesus was making a statement. And the Pater Noster Church does a beautiful job (literally and figuratively) of illustrating that. Through Christ, God is our Father.

ASSE International Student Exchange Programs is currently looking for Host Families for exchange students who will be attending local high schools in the upcoming 2023-24 school year. We would like to extend an invitation to you and your family to consider hosting an exchange student. We strongly believe that student exchange programs contribute to world peace at a grassroots level, and our host families play a crucial role in achieving that. ASSE students are all of high school age (15-18) and come to the United States with their own insurance and spending money, eager to learn about America through their host family and the local community. Whether you are a young family, retired, a single parent, or empty nesters, hosting one of our students from countries like France, Italy, Ukraine, Denmark, and many others presents an extraordinary opportunity to personally experience their cultures and values while simultaneously sharing your own knowledge about the United States. To get a glimpse of some of the hopeful students who are eagerly waiting to be matched with their host families, you can check out our website to view their profiles and read some of their captivating letters. These students are genuinely grateful to you and the USA for giving them the chance to live with your family and become part of your community for a year. ASSE is fully committed to turning their dreams into reality, and we hope that you or someone in your Congregation would be interested in opening your/their home to a new family member this year. From the Hearts and Hands of Session

- The Session used the would-be date of our “off-month” meeting to be the Puckety team to go to TryLife on 7/11, where we first received a brief tour and description of their work, and then were briefed on the work we proceeded to do – 6 pairs of hands made quick work of it, and we’d like to encourage the congregation to continue to look for ways to support the ministry of TryLife to mothers and families in our area as a volunteer.

Women's Bible Study. We will be starting our journey of The Chosen Season Two on Sunday August 20th after church. Our next prayer walk will be on August 20 after worship. We want to encourage people to come out for this first one before school starts so that we can lift up the school and its students to God!!

A Devotional For You A Center for the Soul (read Psalm 42 & Romans 8:12-17)

Recently I finished preaching a series on the Psalms, and now we have been looking at the middle chapters in Romans. And I found a connection between the two in the writing of John Ortberg, in the idea of God's fatherly care of us. The Psalmist cries out, "Why are you downcast, O my soul? Why are you disturbed within me?" (Ps. 42:5) Another translation puts it this way: "How collapsed you are my soul, and how you sigh over me." Pastor Ortberg writes in his book, Soul Keeping, "A soul without a center is like a house built over a sinkhole ... On the other hand, the soul comes alive when it is centered on God. 'Let the morning bring me word of Your unfailing love... for to You I lift up my soul.'"

A certain man tells of how his 3-year-old son used to approach him when he was tired or frightened or just needed to be held. The little guy would reach out with his arms and say, "Hodja, Daddy. Hodja" – his 3-year-old version of "Hold me, Daddy." Years later, his son, now a grown man in his thirties, came home from work and discovered his wife had left him for another man. He was devastated and called his dad and asked if he could come over. Of course he could, so he drove the five hours to his parents' home, walked in the door, and collapsed into his father's arms. The father later said, "I could almost hear him crying, 'Hodja, Daddy. Hodja.'"

The Apostle Paul, of course, conveys something similar in Rom. 8, because through our adoption, we now not only pray to God as "O Holy One, transcendent God above all," but as co-heirs with Christ, we cry, "Abba Father" – the same intimate title Jesus himself used for the Father – close to our word, Daddy. This changes everything. When we reach out to God, we are lifting our souls up to be nurtured and healed. A soul centered in God always knows it has a heavenly Father who will hold its pain, its fear, its anxiety. Ortberg lays it out for us, "This is spiritual life: To place the soul each moment in the presence and care of God." The Psalmist proclaims the need to do just that: "My soul clings to You; Your right hand upholds me."

It is much harder than it sounds to keep our souls centered on God. We hold on tightly, but often to the wrong things. But staying centered on God – His Word, His ways – is the essence of life for the soul. Thomas Kelly wrote, "We feel honestly the pull of many obligations and try to fulfill them all. We are unhappy, uneasy, strained, oppressed, and fearful that we shall be shallow. We have hints that there is a way of life vastly richer and deeper than all this hurried existence, a life of unhurried serenity and peace and power. If only we could slip over into that Center! We have seen and known some people who have found this deep Center of living ..."

"My soul clings to You; Your right hand upholds me." When God seems distant, "My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When can I go and meet with God?" (Ps. 42:2). Brother Lawrence called this: "Practicing the presence of God," and the most important part of that practice lay in "renouncing, once and for all, whatever does not lead to God."

Ortberg suggests that a very simple way to guard your soul is to ask yourself, "Will this situation block my soul's connection to God?" As we begin living this question, we find how little power the world has over our soul. "What if I don't get a promotion, or my boss doesn't like me, or I have financial problems, or the medical tests have bad results?" Yes, these may cause disappointment, but do they have any power over my soul? Can they nudge my soul from its center, which is the very heart of God? When you think about it that way, you realize that external circumstances cannot keep you from being with God. If anything, they draw you closer to Him.

One crying out, "Hold me, Abba Father!"

Connecting Families. Supporting Our Ministries. Building our Church Community.

We are called to minister to one another in Christian Love.

A NEW Church Directory Program provides us with the tools to do just that!

Yes! I would be willing to help with:

- Contacting Families. I love to talk to people.
- Helping with portrait appointment sign-ups. I like to help others.
- Greeting our families during photography. Social butterfly is my middle name.
- Taking and collecting photographs for our church’s activity pages and ministries. I should be working for National Geographic.
- Creative design ideas for our new directory. I love letting my creativity come out to play!
- Gaining student community service hours working with this program. I know that looks good on my college application and resume:

Name: _____
 Phone: _____
 Email: _____

Thank You! For your support of this important event in the life of our church!

The AV Team is still in need of two additional volunteers to run the sound board. All training is provided. We have made some tweaks so that the sound person no longer has to run to the front to be the video person for the children's sermon or special events, so this is really a behind the scenes position. Please let Wiebke or Pastor Brian know if you are interested.

Date	Presentation Creation	Presenter	Sound	Zoom host
8/6/2023	Brian	Joyce	Nate	Wiebke/Keira
8/13/2023	Sandra	Sandra	Zach	Wiebke

We as a church are still supporting the Try Life Center by going to their Lower Burrell facility on the second Tuesday of the month and volunteering to organize and sort through the donations they have received. Those who have already participated in this program can confirm that this is an easy way to give back and support a group that supports those most vulnerable, mothers and young children. Ideally we like to send in a group of 4-6 people from Puckety. We need a few more volunteers for October, November and December. If you have volunteered before please consider signing up for a slot. If you are curious and have some questions please see Wiebke. You do not have to stand for the whole time you are there, we work as a group and can easily be the legs for the willing hearts that have unwilling legs and feet. This is also a great opportunity to show off your snazzy new Puckety shirt!

For August the volunteers are: Lisa Wilson, Angela Goodwin, Barb Sprinkle, Bruce and Kim Sproull. For September the volunteers are Jack and Traci Kirchartz, Marilyn Crumley, Margie Hazlett and Matt Wehrle

Memorial Banners - the Worship Team would like to procure 4-5 more hanging banners for the sanctuary so a different pair could be rotated about every 6 weeks – mid January – mid November. As before, this is an opportunity for families/members to purchase a banner (2' x 6') in memory of a loved one. The relevant information would be included on the backside of the banner, and in the printed announcements/postscripts for the respective period it is displayed. The average cost is about $100/banner. Suggested options are available in the office (particularly Thanksgiving and Pentecost) If you are interested in purchasing one to be used in our yearly worship, please contact Rev. Kilbert to see the options. Thank you.

Outreach Team Update

Your Outreach Team thanks those of you who have been participating in our effort to “improve our community and world”. We continue to search for and develop new and better ways to serve our mission of spreading the Good News as the Body of Christ! Please visit our table at the upcoming Ministry Fair on August 13th. Don't forget to wear your Puckety T-shirt when you Outreach!

Some of you have helped or soon will be helping the TryLife Center by working in teams for 2-3 hours one day this year to inspect, clean, and/or organize clothing and other supplies. Once a month, we have committed to providing this service to this wonderful organization who helps young mothers with pregnancy, parenting and life skills support. There is no limit to how many of us can participate each time, so you might still sign up on the bulletin board to work with others from Puckety who have already committed. It's a fun time for fellowship and sharing your faith. TryLife has another need that would require greater time and dedication than our current ministry effort with them. You will hear more about this table at the upcoming Ministry Fair on August 13th.

We are making some changes to our ministry approach to the schools. We are discontinuing the recognition of the school staff with cards, snacks, water, and gift coupons. Research is underway to find more useful ways to show them our appreciation for what they do. You will be informed before the end of the year what we will provide to them early in 2024. Prayerwalking will restart on the 3rd Sundays of each month following the worship service, beginning in August. Please consider joining us in this conversation with God and wear your Puckety T-Shirt.

We are currently involved in a new mission to help recovering addicts called, "Hope in a Bag". The Addiction Ministry Network of Redstone Presbytery is sponsoring a presbytery-wide collection of these items: Small bible ~ Pens and pencils ~ Journals ~ Playing Cards ~ Daily Devotionals (old copies are fine, i.e., Upper Room, Daily Bread) ~ Shampoo/Conditioner ~ Toothbrushes ~ Toothpaste ~ Deodorant ~ Razors ~ Feminine hygiene products ~ Soap/Body wash ~ Dental floss ~ Nail clippers ~ Q-tips ~ Small blankets ~ Hardtack candies. All items need to be in the bin across the hall from the conference room by September 17th.

The Compassion Network (CN) has, for several years now, provided a furniture / appliance ministry to our local communities. Many times, some of us have helped collect or distribute items to some very needy people and get to share our faith while doing it. People often let this organization know that they have an item or entire household for pickup. Occasionally, some of us have helped pick up some or all of the furniture and/or appliances from a house where a person has passed away and the family has donated the items. Other times, they just bought something new and want to get rid of the old. If you know of a situation like this, please let Matt Wehrle know (724-396-6775) and the CN will make it happen.

Puckety Church will continue to offer an Easter Egg Hunt, Vacation Bible School, and Trunk or Treat as outreach efforts to our community. More participation is always needed for these events. It is our experience that you get more from being there than those attending! Please see any of your Outreach Team members for details.

Finally, here is a report from our global partner, David Lian, the founder and president of the Myanmar Undergraduate School of Theology (MUST):

A Brief Myanmar Mission Report (from Rev. David Ngun Peng Lian) July 20, 2023

Warmest greetings to you from Myanmar! It has been a great blessing to get to know Puckety Church. We have been so blessed to partner with you all in the Lord's ministries for the past many years. Your support and prayers have meant a lot to our ministries. (pic0)

1. The children at Agape House are doing well in the Lord (pic1). [Most of these kids come from homes that were burned down by the military gov't. They took them to a swimming pool, owned by a wealthy Buddhist businessman who gave MUST a discount! (pic2)]. Thanks for sending your support a few weeks ago. We have used some of your support for buying rice bags (pic3) and some of it for our building project. The children enjoy their schooling. Now, no one is sick though some suffered from flu two weeks ago. All 46 children here are doing well, studying well, eating well, clothed well, and taken care of well through your prayers and support.
2. We have admitted 39 students (pic4) this year after closing MUST for three years because of political situation in Myanmar. Now, we have begun to admit only first year students. We praise the Lord for sending us these committed young people to MUST. Everything is going well in the Lord. All students enjoy their studies, time, and stay.

3. Our three daughter churches are doing well, too. Now, every church member comes back to attend our churches because things get better, though big gatherings are still prohibited.
4. Our construction for the orphans is going well, too (pics5-8). We hope to finish it in two weeks. Now, the first floor and second floor are already occupied by the children, though it is still under construction because of our accommodation problem. We praise the Lord for friends who donated to this project - including you. We still need your prayers to finish our building project.

Thanks again for your love, prayers and support for MUST ministries. Much love in the Lord, David

Back to School Prayer

Dear God, Thank you for the gift of children. Please watch over our children as they go back to school this year. Keep them safe every day. Help them to remember that you are right there with them in the halls and classrooms. Help them soak up knowledge. Help them treat others with kindness and respect, and to guard their hearts with the armor of Your Word. Give them joy and peace as they put their trust in you. Amen
