

Mario Curto is a lifelong resident of Alamosa Colorado. He has been a Member at Large on the Roundtable since 2010/2011. Mario has also served on the Alamosa County Fair Board, Farm Credit of Southern Colorado, and is a member of the SLV Well Owners Association as well as the Waverly Drainage District. Mario is a Semi retired farmer and rancher and enjoys traveling.

Water Views: Water is life. We must protect, conserve, and use water wisely. We must educate ourselves and the next generation in order to meet future needs.